The War Today

By GUY RHOADES

NEAR?
Reports from Vichy, France, said today that postal, telephone and telegraph communication had been suspended between German-occupied and unoccupied France, leading to suspicion in some quarters that preparations were advancing rapidly for an invasion attempt on Britain.

From Switzerland came reports that the movement of German troops westward through France had been speeded and was masked by closing of all rail lines except one to Switzerland. The same sources reported concentration of Spanish troops at La Linea, behind the great port of Gibraltar and massing of Italian aircraft at Sardinia airports.

HELP, HELP

Some believed these events presaged a simultaneous assault by the Germans on Britain and the Italians and Spanish on Gibraltar. However, the Spanish, still "nonbelligerent," indicated they had no immediate intention of changing that status. The Falangist (Nationalist) newspaper Aribia of Madrid carried an editorial appealing for United States aid to put Spain back on her feet economically after the civil war that devastated a large part of the country.

NOT SO NEAR

Virginio Gayda, often a kitter for Mussolini, wrote in the newspaper Il Giornale d'Italia a story predicting there would be no immediate attempt to invade Britain by sea. Gayda repeated the contention of British and neutral military experts that an invasion of the island would be an extremely delicate military operation, probably involving huge loss.

German air attacks against Britain today and last night were comparatively mild and no casualties were reported.

SCARES

Other sources said Mussolini had insisted that Italy be given a "fair share" of the attack on Britain when it comes and had contributed to the attacking force German-trained Italian parachute troops and numerous

Final Bulletins

'March Into Berlin'

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND (CP)—Major Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C., General Officer Commanding the Canadian 1st Division, told his troops today that "some of you may yet realize the hope of marching into Berlin."
"If the enemy comes tomorrow we shall be ready for him," Gen. Pearkes said after the units of his command had completed a day of manoeuvres. "And once we have driven the enemy from England we shall chase him and defeat him on his own soil."

Try to Prevent Strike

SEATTLE (AP)—None too hopeful that they could reach a settlement by the deadline, negotiators continued conferences this afternoon in an effort to avert a strike at the Boeing Aircraft Corporation plant at midnight tonight.

"pocket" submarines, 36-foot undersea vessels designed to defend the armada Germany is reported to be trying to assemble at Channel and North Sea ports for the invasion attempt.

These submarines were said to have been transported in considerable number over the Italian German railway through the Brenner Pass.

In many quarters all these stories were regarded as just another example of Germany's "war of nerves."

PREPAREDNESS

That Britain put some stock in them was seen, however, in the warning from authorities that persons who had become careless and ceased carrying their gas masks should resume the practice.

Authorities also warned that liquid gas might be sprayed on the population. Nature of the liquid gas was not discussed. But the commonest form is the so-called "mustard gas" which causes acid burns, rash and suppuration of the flesh.

Britain since last October has been well equipped to face mustard gas through decontamination squads, mobile units to flush the deadly liquid from the street and decontamination posts into which stricken persons can be rushed and washed down quickly.

3 Nazis Downed

A SOUTHEASTERN TOWN IN ENGLAND (CP)—Three German planes were believed to have been shot down in an attempted raid near this town tonight.

Canada Bars Pravda

OTTAWA (CP)—Circulation and distribution in Canada of the Moscow daily newspaper Pravda has been prohibited under the Defence of Canada Regulations, the National Revenue Department announced this afternoon. The paper is printed in the Russian language.

Transfer Orphanage

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Transfer of a British orphanage to southern California has been approved by the California State Social Welfare Board, which amended its rules to permit the action, it was learned this afternoon.

Birchall Holds Ground

OTTAWA (CP)—In serious condition in a hospital here since he underwent an emergency appendectomy Monday night, Frederick T. Birchall, 69, Ottawa correspondent of the New York Times, was reported this afternoon by physicians as "still holding his own." Formerly he was European correspondent for the Times.

CROWN APPEALS HARTNELL TERM

The Court of Appeal will be asked to review the case of Peter George Hartnell and impose a heavier sentence.

Hartnell, 22, former Young Citizens' League leader, was given a three months' term by Magistrate Henry C. Hall for contravention of the Defence of Canada Regulations.

Attorney General Wismer, in announcing his decision to take the case to a higher court, said he did not think the three months' term was sufficient in view of the serious nature of the evidence brought out in the case. Hartnell has started to serve his term in Oakalla.

Crowds Greet Gracie Fields

Gracie Fields came to Victoria today and received such a tumultuous, intimate and spontaneous welcome that even she was surprised and almost speechless.

"I haven't got my Sunday face on," said Gracie, as she stepped from the ship into a mildly milling throng on the dock.

"Good girl, Gracie," cried the men and women from her native Lancashire.

"Hello, boys," said Gracie to the uniformed members of the Rainbow Sea Cadet Corps who had gathered to greet her as she came off the Seattle boat.

Police cleared her way through the crowd and she stepped into a Government House limousine. First, however, she stood on the running board and waved her hat.

WOMEN PATTED HER FACE

Led by the cadet bugle band and the corps, the car moved slowly through the throngs to the Empress Hotel. Gracie waved and signed autograph albums, which were handed to her through the open car window. Women put their hands inside and patted Gracie's face.

"Why, I thought I was going through a Lancashire village," Miss Fields told reporters later. "They're more Lancashire here than they are at home. I thought at first 'summat' was wrong."

One of the first women to throw her arms about Gracie was Miss Stansfield. "We're related," she cried to Gracie, whose maiden name was Stansfield.

Gracie left her mother and father in Hollywood.

"Mother loves it fine," said the star. "Father isn't so fussy; he says he doesn't like beer in tin cans. But that's his only worry."

When Ss. Princess Kathleen docked at Seattle, Gracie was on the bridge with Capt. R. W. McMurray, R.N.R., manager of the B.C. Coast Service, and Capt. Thomas Cliffe. She wore a pink coat over a navy blue pleated suit. Her navy blue hat had a red feather in it. Her shoes were blue leather pumps and her dress had a white collar. On her breast was the insignia of the Companion of the British Empire, awarded to her by the King. She wore a diamond-studded wrist watch.

Reporters asked her what she had been doing in Hollywood.

"Just a bit of washin' and cookin'," she replied. "Living like an ordinary woman for a change."

After being established in the Spanish suite at the Empress, and lunching in the hotel dining room, while a throng of admirers looked on, Miss Fields and her party were whisked away in a limousine to the Government House garden fete for the Red Cross, where she was given a tremendous reception.

Despite threatening weather, thousands had gathered. Twenty-five thousand sandwiches and 500 cakes, gathered by members of the Women's Canadian Club and cut into 16,000 servings, were served. Gallons of ice cream were distributed in countless servings and special boilers were installed to make it possible to serve thousands of cups of tea and coffee.

Gracie, always followed by her admirers, moved to the various stalls, purchasing lavishly.

But she herself was the biggest attraction, as evidenced every time she moved.

This evening Miss Fields will spend at the Empress Hotel, but tomorrow she will return to Government House to be the guest of His Honor and Mrs. Hamber until her departure for Vancouver Sunday afternoon aboard Capt. M. Crawford's yacht Fifer. In Vancouver she will be the house guest of Major and Mrs. Austin Taylor at "Shannon."

BUSY PROGRAM

Tomorrow evening there will be a private dinner party at Government House and on Friday evening Miss Fields will appear at the Royal Victoria Theatre before a house that was sold out five hours after the box office opened last week. Saturday evening the famed comedienne will entertain 5,000 members of the navy, the army and the air force and their ladies, at an open-air concert.

Demand Japs Release Britons

LONDON (CP)—Authorized sources today indicated Britain has demanded the release of all British subjects arrested by Japanese authorities in widespread raids.

Strong representations to this end have been made both in Tokyo by Ambassador Sir Robert Craigie and by Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax to the Japanese ambassador here, it was said.

4 Businessmen So Far Set Free

A Reuters News Agency dispatch from Kobe, Japan, today said two more of the arrested British subjects had been released.

Four of the group of prominent British businessmen taken into custody thus have been freed.

The two released today were E. G. Price and C. H. McNaughton, honorary Greek consular representative at Osaka. One of the others previously released was R. T. Holder, president of the British Association of Kobe.

Protest Futile Suma Declares

TOKYO (AP)—Yakichiro Suma, foreign office spokesman, told newspapermen today that "it would be entirely unreasonable" for Britain to make any sort of protest in connection with the arrests of British subjects in an alleged espionage round-up.

He stated that if a protest is made the Japanese government "will give no consideration" to it. He claimed the authorities have "sufficient evidence" against the prisoners.

Funeral services for Melville James Cox, British newspaperman who, the Japanese claim, committed suicide by jumping out of a window while being questioned in connection with alleged espionage activities, were held today attended by Sir Robert Craigie, the British ambassador; Joseph Grew, United States ambassador; and other diplomats and representatives of the foreign office. Domei, Japanese news agency, also was represented: Cox was correspondent for Reuters, British news agency.

Ambassador Talks With Matsuoka

The British ambassador intends to see Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka soon and is expected to enter a strong protest, it was stated authoritatively.

In declining to say how many Britons were under arrest, Suma indicated persons of other nationalities may be involved.

"I have reason to believe the number is increasing," he said, adding without explanation: "I don't think other nationalities are involved for the moment."

Suma declined to say whether any Japanese had been arrested, but noted that vernacular newspapers had reports to this effect.

Move in Campaign For 'New Order'

Why Is an EASY a Better Washer Value?

63.50 to 169.00

BECAUSE Easy's patented, scientifically correct washing action forces suds directly through the mesh of the fabric. Clothes are not worn, torn, distorted or pulled. Because of this different and superior action many savings result. The Easy owner saves on wear and tear on the clothes, saves on soap, saves on the heating of water, and Easy washers last twice as long as ordinary washers. Low initial cost does not always constitute a bargain. Our experts will show you how you actually save many times the extra few dollars it costs to own an Easy vacuum-cup washer.

See Physical Work

Students of the Summer School today saw pictorial evidence of physical education activities in various parts of British Columbia as Ernest Lee, B.A., B.S., a member of the staff, presented an informal showing of moving pictures he had taken in various localities.

Unedited, the films gave a clear idea of the activities of the different groups in the field and provided a good idea of the program being carried in various schools. They were taken by Mr. Lee, physical education instructor at Vancouver's provincial Normal School, in several parts of the province.

With the exception of the final dance in the Empress Hotel on Friday evening, the extracurricular activity of the school will close tomorrow with a vocal recital by Barbara Cass, English lyric soprano, in the morning, and an afternoon dance frolic on the lawn of the High School during which all members of the student body will be given an opportunity to participate in folk dances and games.

Thrupp Stands by Predictions

Relief Rushed in Turkey Where Quake Killed 300

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—Government agencies speeded relief today to earthquake-stricken areas on the central Anatolian plateau, where 30 persons were reported killed and hundreds injured yesterday by heavy tremors which destroyed 12 villages.

The affected region centres around Yozgad, 200 miles east of Ankara.

Tremors were felt in Ankara, Istanbul, Erzurum, Tokat, Kayseri, Amasya and Sinop.

Last fall earthquakes took approximately 40,000 lives in Anatolia, and in the region farther east. Thousands, left homeless, died in bitter cold weather.

Edgar C. Thrupp—Vancouver's "earthquake man"—and his critics, received news of the earthquake in Turkey with mixed reactions.

The retired civil engineer's prediction six months ago that there would be "catastrophic disturbances" between July 20 and August 5, drew violent criticism from University of British Columbia professors.

Said Thrupp of the Turkish quake: "The news really comes as no surprise to me. I expected something of the sort—in fact, I told about it last January. You know, it's ridiculous for those chaps at the university to criticize me when they admittedly have not the slightest knowledge of seismology."

MORE TREMBLORS SOON

Thrupp said more earthquakes of like nature would strike before the deadline of his predictions. The Turkish earthquake, he said, was a continuation of the Armenian disturbance of last Saturday.

He bases his predictions on gravitational stresses in the earth's crust, produced by shifting influences of neighboring planets, and has devised "earthquake machines," which have been installed in several coast cities.

Said Dr. Gordon Shrum, head of the U.B.C. physics department: "This earthquake proves nothing at all. More than 40,000 take place every year, and this one merely happened to strike in a thickly-populated district. I might just as well predict thunderstorms somewhere in the world tomorrow. Thrupp's theories are just nonsense."

parties criticized the government on the ground that indications had been seen of a less-than-wholehearted war effort.

RECORDS RECEIVED

Mr. Stirling's presentation reviewed the record of this and the preceding government. He was Minister of Defence in 1935 in the Bennett government.

He blamed the government for not taking full advantage of industrial and manpower resources immediately after the war started.

Mr. Coldwell urged repeatedly, as he has several times in recent weeks, that a secret sifting of Parliament be held so members might be made acquainted with what is being done to carry out Canada's war responsibilities.

He asked what the relations were with the United States government and if any joint plan of American defence was being worked out.

"Is there any plan to provide the United States with a base in Canada for operations?" Mr. Coldwell also queried.

Mr. King told him such things would not be revealed even at a secret sitting. They would cause controversy within the United States.

Mr. Coldwell said the time might come before victory was achieved when defence of Canada and possibly the transfer of the Empire's capital to Ottawa would have to be considered.

TANKS AND PLANES
Hon. Grote Stirling said there had been a demand from the Canadian people for greater action. With changing events, policy had changed. No longer did people hear that it was impossible to build tanks and airplanes in Canada.

Munitions Minister Howe knew better, but had to bear a share of the government's position of that time that Canadian industry was not being urged to intensify its operations.

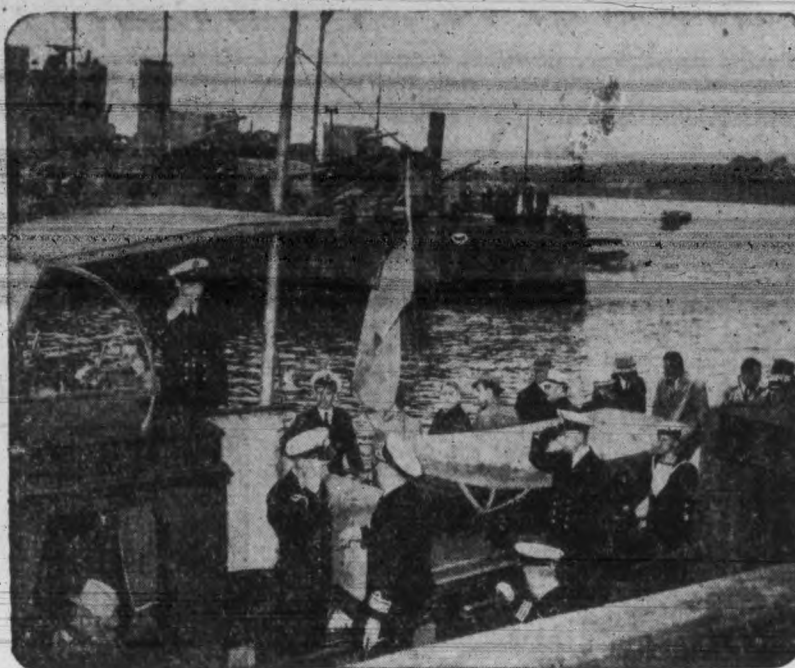

As any engineer knew, Mr. Howe knew Canadian industry was capable of adapting itself to manufacture anything, all under the direction of the government.

Referring to the statement by Air Minister Power on behalf of Navy Minister Macdonald, Mr. Stirling said the time had at last gone when "ignorant members of the public enjoyed themselves by sneering at Canada's navy."

Even so, nothing derogatory had ever been said of the efficiency of Canada's navy.

There was "not much new" in the statement of Defence Minister Ralston, Mr. Stirling said. It seemed to be a collection of a large amount of material, part of which has come to us from time to time from the director of public information.

East Coast Sailors Put on Show

Commodore H. E. Reid, R.C.N., and Commander Hugh Paller, escort the members of the Canadian Parliament aboard the Moby Dick to examine defence works of Halifax harbor. Destroyers of the Canadian Navy are outlined in the background. Among the Members on the launch can be seen Rene Jutras, M.P. for Provencher, Manitoba; Thomas H. Ross, M.P., East Hamilton, Ontario; L. E. Cardiff, M.P., North Huron, Ontario; Allan Chambers, M.P., Nanaimo, B.C., and A. C. Casselman, M.P., Prescott, Ontario.

Every morning in the early hours, officers and other ranks of the Royal Canadian Navy at Halifax, stage a colorful ceremony. It is called the Divisions Parade. The march past at Divisions as shown, was witnessed by the group of Members of Parliament, on a tour of harbor facilities and defences at Halifax.

New R.A.F. Successes

240 German Planes Bagged in July

LONDON (AP)—The Air Ministry announced tonight that 240 German planes had been shot down during July. The known destruction of these machines involved a loss to Germany of "at least 600 officers and men killed or taken prisoner."

The German radio station at Bremen went off the air early this afternoon. Such interruptions, which usually mean British planes are raiding Germany, have been frequent at night, but this is the first noted here in daytime.

Daylight Raids On Enemy Centres

Royal Air Force bombers made daylight raids "throughout yesterday" on military objectives in northern France and Holland.

Last night the R.A.F. attacked gun emplacements in Norway, the naval base at Emden, Germany, and a supply ship off Norway, the ministry announced.

Various land objectives in Belgium and Holland also were attacked.

Britons braced themselves today for the threatened Nazi invasion attempt after hearing Swiss reports of elaborate preparations for a blow in which Italians would have a "token" share.

German planes attacked shipping off the southeast coast today, continuing blows they have been delivering in that region almost incessantly for the past three days.

Planes Chased Across Channel

Strong forces of British Spitfire and Hurricane fighters rose at once to meet the attack, and some of the German planes returned across the Channel.

Explosions of bombs could be heard inland, indicating some damage may have been caused.

Last night thousands watched a 15-minute battle between a British ship and a German aircraft. The ship maintained a terrific fire overhead and the convoy appeared undamaged when the last planes were chased away. Yesterday air activity over

Britain was light in comparison with the intense attacks of the previous two days which resulted in heavy enemy loss. Monday alone 21 enemy aircraft were downed and only two British lost.

No Casualties In German Attacks

The government announced that enemy bombers "dropped a few bombs" in southeast and southwest England and in south Wales last night, with "little damage" done and no casualties.

The attack on Wales was the third successive night assault in that area. Some bombs fell into the sea, others ashore.

The government today renewed the warning to civilians to carry their gas masks with them.

Home Minister Sir John Anderson in a broadcast cited the possibility that liquid gas might be sprayed from the air in enemy raids.

NEW RULES EASE BORDER CROSSINGS

OTTAWA (CP)—The Foreign Exchange Control Board, in the interests of those who live on the United States border, has promulgated additional regulations governing the right to carry small sums of money to the United States.

Commuters, transportation employees and certain other persons travelling on business, it was announced today, will be able to cross the border without obtaining the usual exchange control permit, as will persons desiring to visit friends in adjoining American towns in cases where no expenditure of funds is involved.

Canadians living in Canada but employed in the United States may henceforth carry their customary amount of daily funds with them without permit. It is provided that the limit shall be $500 for those who are not employed in the United States. Those who feel that for professional or other reasons they require to make expenditures of a special character should communi-

Communal Meals Tested in Britain

LONDON (CP)—Government-controlled "mass production" dining halls to strengthen Britain's war effort and economize on fuel and food may become a reality in Britain that is gearing itself against possible invasion.

High sources disclosed today that communal kitchens are being seriously considered in a country that has changed long-rooted habits almost overnight as a result of the Nazi menace.

Britain's first experiment in communal feeding, after more than a week's trial, has proved a success, and is being watched closely. Qualified observers believe it is feasible for general use if emergency conditions make it necessary.

Labor quarters are said to be especially enthusiastic. They see in communal feeding a solution for their protest against "luxury dining-out" in time of war stress by persons who can pay the price.

The experiment is being tried in the welfare institute adjoining the D'Algarve estate, where there are 1,000 apartments housing 2,000 adults and 3,000 children.

It is being conducted by volunteer women caterers, whose job, when the scheme is fully exploited, will be to provide for the occupants of all apartments. The 2,300 meals served during the first week established that 11 pence (about 20 cents) will buy a three-course meal of soup, meat, with two vegetables, and a dessert.

CREDITORS PESTER GREAT BARRYMORE

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Just how to subtract $10,500 a week for the benefit of John Barrymore's creditors from the $1,000 a week the actor says he is now earning, and still have left $1,000 for his necessary expenses occupied a hearing today on Barrymore's petition for a debtor's extension.

The "great profile" known to theatre millions receives $5,000 a week when he is working on a picture, the actor explained, and $1,000 when he is not. Just now he is not, but he expects to start work again September 15.

Barrymore was hard put to account for the $1,000 a week it costs him to live. He recalled some items of expenditure and then lumped the rest under "mysterious expenses that are always creeping in."

Claimants to a share of Barrymore's earnings included his former wife, Dolores Costello, who said she had $5,648 due on back alimony, and Diane Blythe Barrymore, his 18-year-old daughter by a previous spouse, whose attorney demanded $11,413 for support. This was protested by Barrymore's attorney, who declared she already had received $229,000.

Barrymore and Dolores greeted each other pleasantly and chatted before the hearing.

Ernest R. Utley, federal bankruptcy referee, said he was concerned principally in seeing that the two children of Barrymore and Dolores Costello, aged 8 and 10, were properly provided for. He continued the hearing until Thursday to permit examination of the couple's divorce settlement.

CAIRO (AP)—A Royal Air Force communiqué today said:

"A valuable reconnaissance flight was carried out over Tobruk and Derna (Italian Libya) yesterday. Eleven enemy aircraft were observed in an unserviceable condition as a result of recent raids on that airdrome."

"In Italian East Africa an ammunition dump and other objectives in Massawa were attacked by bombing aircraft of the Royal Air Force. Despite heavy anti-aircraft gunfire and adverse weather conditions, the raid was pressed home with success, direct hits being registered on enemy headquarters and fuel dumps. Enemy fighters intercepted, but all our aircraft returned safely."

"Blenheims attacked naval barracks at Assab and hangars at Macaca on July 29. The extent of the damage is not yet known. One Blenheim failed to return."

"A formation of enemy bombers raided Aden the same day. Damage done was negligible. Four natives were killed and 15 wounded."

"Enemy aircraft were seen approaching Malta yesterday, but turned back before reaching the island."

4 Candidates
In Saskatoon

SASKATOON (CP)—M. P. Hayes, defeated by the late Rev. W. G. Brown in the federal by-election here last December, will run as Liberal candidate in the Saskatoon city by-election to be held here August 19.

Hayes became the fourth candidate in the field for the seat held twice by Mr. Brown of the United Reform movement. Mayor Carl Niderost, the Liberal candidate in the general election March 26, refused to allow his name to go before the convention last night.

Miss Agnes MacPhail, former member of Parliament for Grey-Bruce, Ont., last night accepted the United Reform movement nomination.

Other candidates are Wilma Moore, teacher at the technical college here, an Independent, and Eddie Williams, a Saskatoon traveler, running as an Independent Liberal.

Miss Moore is the daughter of a former missionary to Canadian Indians, who served on the Mistawsis Reserve in northern Saskatchewan. She won a provincial government scholarship which took her to the Sorbonne in Paris for two years' study and has taught school in various districts of this province. Her candidature is being sponsored by the local branch of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Gibraltar Explosion

GIBRALTAR (CP)—Military headquarters announced that three soldiers were killed Monday in the explosion "in the vicinity of the naval wireless station at the north front" of this Mediterranean stronghold. It said the cause was "as yet unknown." Apparently a big powder magazine was blown up. More than 40 are reported injured.

Canada's Great Effort

IF THE PEOPLE OF CANADA HAD THE time to study carefully the whole text of the speeches delivered in the House of Commons by Prime Minister Mackenzie King, Hon. J. L. Ralston, Hon. C. D. Howe, Hon. J. G. Gardiner, and Hon. J. L. Isley, they would probably rub their eyes and wonder whether they had read aright or whether they had been dreaming. But they would have noted how the Minister of War Services had suggested that an army of 1,000,000 men might be recruited from Canadians between the ages of 21 and 45, how the Minister of Munitions and Supply had painted a picture that will materialize in huge establishments of steel and concrete for the manufacture of every type of equipment demanded by modern warfare, and how the Prime Minister and his Minister of Finance are contemplating the financial outlays that already have grown into astronomical figures and will, as the months pass, demand more contributions from the individual pocket.

Critics of the government will burn the midnight oil to find out as many flaws as they can in the collective ministerial statements. Included in a column-long editorial today the morning paper solemnly informs its readers that "much of the information forthcoming applies to the future." We refuse to go into a trance to prepare our mind for an admission of the truth of this profound statement. Canada's program for industrial war output for the next year, the year after, and the year after that marks Minister of Supply Howe's contribution to the government's accounting as one of the most striking pieces of evidence that this part of the British Commonwealth is preparing not only for what may happen in the next few weeks and months, but for contingencies of which we hesitate to speak, but which are not excluded from the governmental vision on which its comprehensive accelerated program is now being unfolded. Germany's Blitzkrieg changed everything in the nations arrayed against totalitarianism—changed their whole conception of the war and how it had to be fought. Britain was caught napping; France was caught napping. It is the future with which we are now concerned. The Empire will and must prevail.

Getting Action

OBVIOUSLY RECOGNIZING THE URGENT necessity of completing the details of his all-embracing proposal for dealing with British Columbia's "Fifth Columnists" in the event of an emergency, Hon. Gordon Wismer, provincial Attorney-General, has been called to Ottawa for consultation with the authorities and this province's representatives in the House of Commons and Senate.

The Dominion government already has set the date by which all owners of firearms must surrender them for registration purposes. This is the initial step advocated a month ago by Mr. Wismer, his object being the undertaking of a complete inventory of every type of gun and material convertible into munitions of war at present in the possession of the civilian population of the province. The object of his visit to Ottawa is for a discussion on the precise form the home defence corps shall take, the Attorney-General enthusiastically favoring the system in operation in the British Isles, where each individual community's protection against "Fifth Column" activities is carried out on group lines of street by street organization.

Mr. Wismer naturally realizes the vast difference between a province so sparsely populated as British Columbia and a comparative pocket handkerchief-sized country like Britain. But it is his intention to impress the authorities at Ottawa with certain facts about an alien population in this part of Canada which do not always strike those more than 2,000 miles away as forcibly as they strike us on the Pacific coast.

British Columbia's problem can be dealt with, of course, as part of a national plan for home defence; but the Attorney-General will be assured of the support of all the people of this province in his advocacy of a practical arrangement which should anticipate even the most fantastic probabilities. And in view of the record abroad to date it will not do to pooh-pooh anything these days.

'Wings of Atonement'

AS WE HAVE SAID IN THESE COLUMNS on more than one occasion, the Saturday Evening Post, before the outbreak of the present war and since, has seemed to take a keen delight in selecting articles with a definite anti-British tone. Some of them, it is true, have contained unpleasant fact—made the more unpalatable by editorial treatment—often unnecessary and frequently not in the best of taste. During the dark days of May and June one or two contributions published by the well-known weekly were nothing less than distortions, or, at least, clothed in language either intended to offend the sensibilities of a people defending the right or to overemphasize a doubt about the final outcome of the war.

We took the opportunity, incidentally, to congratulate Senator Arthur Meighen when he dealt in a general way with this subject and voiced what evidently was in the minds of most of us. But we are afraid we do not share his view of a recent story entitled "Wings of Atonement," by Paul Gallico. Mr. Meighen says this narrative is intended to cast ridicule on Englishmen and undermine the war spirit in Canada. On the contrary, Mr. Gallico's fiction involves the head of an English family—a flying man in the first Great War and whose ancestors for years had been duly elected to the House of Commons, upholding the traditions of British Conservatism—who had seen fit to approve the general policy of appeasement because it seemed to prevent the discomfort of a change in his way of life. But the war had come, he had lost his only son. He had heard the cry for more airplanes; if a policy of official lethargy had not been pursued, he mused, might not his son have lived? Might not Britain have been spared the spectacle of temporary, but vital, overwhelming numerical superiority in fighting aircraft if—but there are many "ifs" in the narrative.

The county gentleman, the leading character of the story, had kept his "old bus" and he put it in shape for another crack at the enemy he had fought before. It was his way of admitting he had been wrong, and the thought of his dead son stirred in his red blood the desire to do the right thing. He went up, but the great bombers and fighting planes of 1940 passed him almost unnoticed. His cup of remorse was about full. "Wings of Atonement"—Senator Meighen notwithstanding—was a moving confession of a mythical Englishman who had the courage to pay for his mistaken judgment with an offer of the supreme sacrifice.

Closing the Gaps

AFTER MIDNIGHT TONIGHT THE ships of all non-British nations heading for European ports will find it to their advantage to use the navicert system—a form of passport for ship's cargoes—if they desire to avoid inconvenience and probably serious loss. This is the general meaning of the extension of the blockade Great Britain will now apply from the Arctic Ocean to northern Africa in her determination to stop further supplies of war materials, or what may be converted for military uses, from reaching Germany and Italy.

When Mr. Hugh Dalton, Britain's Minister of Economic Warfare, announced the new policy in the House of Commons yesterday he intimated to all shipping lines that so long as their vessels conformed to the system prescribed not only would they not experience either delay or difficulty but they also would be assured the full enjoyment of such services as coaling, drydock and insurance facilities at all British ports the world over. However, ships of offending lines—neutral ships, for example, found guilty of an attempt to run the blockade—might find considerable difficulty even in obtaining water. The revised system, moreover, will eliminate the necessity of bothersome control bases such as were established at the beginning of the war for the examination of cargoes suspected of contraband material.

Briefly put, Britain has warned all neutral nations and ships of every registry that she intends to employ all the machinery in her possession to prevent war materials in any form reaching her enemies either directly or through neighboring states more or less friendly disposed toward the axis powers. She does not propose to abuse her sea power; the government at Westminster has made it clear to all concerned that the normal imports of such valuable war materials as oil and metals, and so on, will not be interfered with. But if a country like Spain, for example, should be discovered trying to buy double or treble the amount of oil she required for her domestic use in 1939, she would at once be suspect and suitable "arrangements" would be made to prevent the consummation of the deal. Matters such as these can be disposed of at the cargo's point of origin. It is there that the navicert system operates—or must operate if trouble is to be avoided.

Grumbles and protests probably will be heard before the extended blockade has been in operation for many days. But the terms of the plan cannot be mistaken; intended violations will be bad business for those responsible. What the neutral nations will be compelled to realize in all its implications, is that the British Empire is fighting for its life and will brook no further interference with its preparations for ultimate survival from the ordeal threatened by the gangster nations.

The most desirable thing is whatever we lack. Youngsters want wealth and old people would gladly give them all of it for their youth.

'BEATING THE DRAFT'

From Ottawa Citizen
Men are rushing to the recruiting offices to "beat the draft." Colonel Ralston will have a job on his hands to find men of the idea that in so doing they are escaping the stigma of being conscripted. Colonel Ralston says: "There is no reason why military training should not be looked upon as a duty to the state that the individual discharges in exactly the same manner as he pays his income tax. In other words he discharges it when it is due and he is called upon to do so. No one pays his income tax until he is called upon. A similar view with respect to the duty of military training is only logical."

Military service is only one part of the service demanded in this total war, a war where it takes from five to 10 men to maintain a fighting man in the field of operations, whether on land, at sea or in the air. These five to 10 men are those in the workshops, on the farm, in transportation and all the other civil services.

"Beating the draft" has resulted in the enlistment of many who may perhaps have to be sent back to their skilled jobs. These key workers should be distributed as evenly as possible. This will be done by the issue of a distinctive button. But the "button" men and the volunteers are all doing their military duty, even as they pay their income tax when they are subject to it.

FILING SYSTEM

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED in efficiency and business methods, you would enjoy my filing system. It is not only comprehensive, but it has the clean beauty of simplicity. No card indexes, no secretaries, no fuss. I just pile all the clippings, documents, pamphlets and figures upon my desk in a little Chinese wall about my typewriter, and when there is no longer room for the typewriter, I carry it to the typewriter, then I sweep the whole mass into the fire and start afresh. That is what I call filing.

Today the Chinese wall toppled over and I have started to build afresh. But half way between my desk and the fire, my eye lit on some clippings I had made a few months ago and somehow they seemed now to be worth rereading. This is almost unprecedented in my filing system. I have never known anything to be of use before in my system or in any other.

These clippings, rescued on the edge of the fire, relate to the finances of Britain. Reading them over, and trying to make some sense of the latest British budget, I can come to no other conclusion than that the British government is not nearly on top of its financial problem yet. There will have to be more budgets and far more taxes and a far greater reduction in the British standard of living.

I don't suppose the British government will accept that advice from me, even buttressed by my filing system, but it may have to listen to authorities like The Economist and John Maynard Keynes. They won't think much of the new budget. Even before the cost of the war had risen to its present proportions these authorities were saying that it could not be financed without a drastic change in the financial system, without a much deeper sacrifice by all the people.

QUITE SIMPLE

CONSIDER, FOR A MOMENT, what the British government is trying to do. It plans to spend $3,457,000,000, or something over $13,000,000,000. If the United States were spending at that rate, for its population, its budget would be about $40,000,000,000. Actually, it is less than $9,000,000,000, plus about $11,000,000,000 for armaments, some of which will not be spent in the current year. Britain is thus spending more than twice as much as the United States. At the most, the Canadian government this year will spend $1,500,000,000, and if our population were equal to that of Britain, we would be spending, at this rate, about $6,000,000,000, half what the British propose to spend.

In the new British budget there will be a deficit of $2,200,000,000. This, says the Chancellor of the Exchequer, is "formidable but not alarming." It may not be alarming to the Chancellor. It is very alarming to The Economist and to men like Keynes.

When the last budget came down (you are beginning to see the value of my filing system now) The Economist said that a deficit of $2,000,000,000 was too much. Now the deficit is over that. The money is to be found by borrowing, but The Economist holds that such an amount could scarcely be borrowed "not merely without inflation, but without inflation on a grandiose scale."

Inflation is no solution of anything. It is the most unfair kind of tax on the poor, who feel it in the form of soaring prices. It wipes out the man who has saved anything. But how can Britain prevent inflation if it is going to run such huge deficits and seek to borrow the money needed to cover them? Mr. Keynes advanced a plan some time ago but the government would not hear of it. He proposed to compel everybody to save his money and loan it to the government. That is the only way, he says, that Britain can save enough money annually to loan the government what it needs.

ONLY ONE PLACE

AFTER ALL, THE THING is pretty simple. If you can only get the economists out of the way. In 1939, according to Professor Robert McQueen, one of Canada's chief economists, the British national income was $7,000,000,000. Of this the British people spent $4,350,000,000 on goods that they consumed. This left only $1,350,000,000 that the government could collect in taxes, and in the new budget the government proposes to collect just about all of it, leaving virtually nothing as working capital to finance new industries and public works. Everything is going into the war.

The only place the government can get the rest of the money it needs, the deficit of $2,200,000,000, is out of that national income of $7,000,000,000. If Britain continues to spend anything like $4,350,000,000 on goods, there simply won't be money to pay for the war, either by taxes or by borrowings.

Thus there are only two ways of carrying on the war at its present level. The national income can be raised, output of goods increased; or the consumption of goods, apart from those needed in the war, can be curtailed. Both methods, of course, are being used. Output is rising and doubtless will far exceed last year's mark of $7,000,000,000. And consumption is being throttled by taxes on luxuries. People are poorer.

Still, say men like Keynes, that is not enough. It is not enough to discourage purchasing by heavy luxury taxes, and there isn't enough money among the rich to pay the war cost, even if the rich are completely ruined. The only way is to stop people spending their money on ordinary goods by borrowing it from them before they spend it—forcing them to loan it to the government so they cannot spend it.

Something like that must come, and the ordinary Englishman, without understanding the meaning of the word "inflation," demands more taxes, preferring them to ruinous inflation. He will assuredly get them. You can take that from my filing system before it goes into the fire.

CBC WAR NEWS

ONE OF THE LAST scheduled items of business for this wartime session of Parliament is what to do about news broadcasting in Canada. The problem has been one of increasing difficulty for several years past. The war has aggravated it. Intertwined with the more or less superficial technical question of news coverage is that of the government's general publicity policy. It is putting it mildly to say that the latter has been woefully weak.

The thing to remember, when considering the efficiency of the CBC news broadcasts, is that a large percentage of all the listeners in Canada are completely dependent on the CBC for their radio news. Those of us who live near the border can listen, when so inclined, to any one of several United States stations. In most of these localities good privately-sponsored newscasts are still being given by Canadians for Canadians. But if the present suggestion is carried through—that there be a complete monopoly on news coverage by radio in Canada—then one of two things must happen. Either the CBC must vastly improve and simplify its whole policy of news coverage and news analysis, or there is going to be an appalling lack of information in Canada. Incidentally, I would also hazard the guess that there will be an increasing howl of public protest unless the CBC improves its services out of all proportion to past efficiency.

The question seems to have three distinct phases. The first has to do with the CBC's own straight news services. Until a few months ago these were pretty terrible. It always seemed to me that the Canadian Press was thinking if itself first, last and all the time. Hence the news was mostly hours late—invariably behind the publication of the news in our local papers.

A LETTER FROM FRANCE

(Written to her sister, Barbara Sessions)

Pau, Basses-Pyrénées, France, July 1, 1940.

... Potatoes are a great scarcity right now—and butter! Pau has swollen from 50,000 to 350,000 inhabitants. You have to wait in line from 15 to 20 minutes to get served anywhere. Waiting is the one word that sums up how we are living. Waiting for news of scattered families—waiting three hours for an out-of-town telephone call—waiting to manoeuvre out of the traffic jams—waiting at the prefecture for a "bon d'essence" (gasoline permit)—waiting in line to buy a pair of shoes.

Store open from 10 to 12 and from 3 to 5 to reduce congestion. At the central market this morning prices were announced by a loud speaker to prevent profiteering. Wherever you saw a jabbering group of women swarming, you knew that a few pounds of potatoes were at the centre of the buddle. I joined the fray only to learn that the supply was exhausted.

A little farther on a policeman was weighing out potatoes, but even he could hardly prevent furnished housewives from snatching them from the scales. Another policeman was taking down the name of a woman who had succeeded in getting served twice.

Butter, never very plentiful in the Midi, is totally absent since the supply from Normandy is cut off. There is occasionally a little oil. And you can eat rice. One can have as much meat as one likes. But the prospect of feeding all these people is going to be tremendous by next winter. However, most of them will be returning to their homes in due course, I suppose. The Germans will put pressure on the French to this effect.

Reports of German occupation (the line goes through Salies, 50 kilometres from here) are that they are behaving very "correctly." I haven't seen any German uniforms anywhere. But Mme. P. said a little dry goods merchant in Pau served a German officer the other day. The woman, who was pregnant, was terribly upset to see him come into her shop. But he told her to take her time in hunting the stockings he wanted and not to be worried about her condition. But other stories are told, too. A French doctor dropped in at this house where we are staying—full of concern for his sons. He had just heard that boys in Paris are being sent away to Germany. Rumors—maybe not all news. We have absolutely no inkling of what is going on in Spain, a little about the Balkans, nothing of German and Italian developments. There is no French radio at all. You can listen to England—but the tin can with a horrid voice that passes for a radio—with nine-tenths of the French people is incapable of getting news from America. So it's like living in ancient times when news had to come by courier.

... I found the English had landed troops in Portugal. Who knows whether it is true or not? ELEANOR FOSTER COHU.

BEHIND AN ACT OF PARLIAMENT

We should all realize that passing an Act of Parliament unanimously doesn't by itself produce a single airplane or gun or shell.

The act itself is "only a blank cheque. It gives legal authority to the government to organize manpower. Getting results depends upon how that authority is used.

The act is nothing until it issues in an efficient, detailed program. —Sir William Beveridge.

Just how much security have you and I a right to ask of life? —President William E. Wickenden of Case School of Applied Science.

Act of Havana Pacts Signed By 21 Nations

HAVANA (AP)—The 21 American republics formally presented a united front today against political and economic dangers from other continents in a three-point program which State Secretary Cordell Hull of the United States regarded with deep satisfaction, despite last-minute reservations by eight nations.

The Havana conference, after setting up new machinery to bolster the solidarity of the western hemisphere, concluded last night with formal signing of documents amid flurries of cheers.

All the delegates signed the Act of Havana and supplementary agreements, although the Argentine delegation—which had argued against anticipating need of action concerning European colonies in the new world—led seven other nations in a succession of reservations.

The delegates of Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Uruguay and Venezuela specified that the agreements must be ratified by their governments before participation. Mexico, Bolivia and Peru made reservations as to minor points.

The program consists of:
1. The Act of Havana declaring all the republics opposed to transfer to other non-American nations or attempt to transfer or acquire interest in European possessions in this hemisphere. These territories are French, Dutch and British.

2. Inter-American co-operation, through consultation and mutual exchange of information, to combat "fifth columnists" or other subversive elements.

3. Mutual efforts to settle American economic problems, including market dislocations resulting from the European war, and "economic defence" against encroachment of European barter systems.

The Act of Havana provides for joint administration of any foreign possession threatened by a non-American nation, but also recognizes the right of any American republic to act singly or jointly in emergency situations.

FRENCH AREAS

WASHINGTON (CP)—The United States government took the position today that if France becomes a Fascist dependency of Germany an emergency will be created which will require the American nations to take over administration of French possessions in the western hemisphere.

Sumner Welles, acting Secretary of State, outlined this position in response to press conference questions as to the effect of the newly signed Havana agreements on the French island of Martinique in the West Indies. He declined to say what he considers the present status of France to be.

Trouble over Martinique has been threatening since France capitulated to Germany.

ACTION PREDICTED
NEW YORK (CP)—New York Daily News said in a copyright story today that the United States is preparing to send a naval expeditionary force into the Caribbean Sea to impose a "trusteeship" over the possessions of France and the Netherlands.

It said action would be taken when the Pan-American nations give ratification of the move. Four old destroyers and two 15,000-ton former liners, the Santa Maria and Santa Barbara, which the United States Navy bought last week, would be employed in the expedition.

"Great Britain has urged the move," said the News. "So have residents of the French island of Martinique, who have confidentially notified the state department they would welcome American intervention."

"This manoeuvre would virtually hand over to England the rich booty of a great military victory. . . . It would impound for the duration of the war $250,000,000 in French gold reposing at Martinique for more than a month. It would appropriate and demilitarize a squadron of French naval vessels in Martinique, including the aircraft carrier Bearn, on which there are 100 American military airplanes, once destined for France. The airplanes, it is believed, could be bought back by the United States and resold to England."

The News added that "for ap

WINDSOR TALKS WITH REPORTERS

LISBON (AP)—A representative of the Italian news and propaganda agency, Stefani, "crashed" the Duke of Windsor's farewell reception for the press last night.

He claimed to represent an obscure Portuguese paper, but was detected and discreetly ushered out by the British embassy press attaché just before the party broke up.

The Duke plans to leave with the Duchess Thursday on the United States liner Excalibur to take up his duties as Governor of the Bahamas.

Shaking hands with the reporters, he said:

"My wish to see you before leaving Portugal was in order to tell you that the Duchess and I much enjoyed the hospitality of the few weeks spent in this beautiful country, where we were so warmly received."

"As you know, we are leaving very shortly for the Bahamas, where I have been appointed Governor. It will be a novel experience for me, being the first opportunity to govern a colony of the British Empire."

"Indeed, I am looking forward to arriving in the Bahamas, one of the few parts of the Empire where I have never been before but which I know to be very nice."

Farm Assistance Scheme Amended

OTTAWA (CP)—The first year's operation of the Prairie Farm Assistance Act—under which some compensation is paid for most crop failures—has proved the act can be made to work, as far as Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture, is concerned.

The fact that payments had been made to 58,000 prairie farmers with not more than 100 mistakes indicates "fairly successful" administration of new act unlike anything ever tried before in any country, he told the House of Commons last night.

Weak spots in the first year's experiment were aired by western members as Mr. Gardiner piloted through the House a number of amendments improving the first version of the act.

Criticism was of the application of the measure, not of its principle. Opposition speakers claimed the acreage bonus and election campaigning had been too closely mixed in Saskatchewan for satisfactory administration.

The bill amending the act received third-reading late in the evening.

C.N.R. DEBATE

The House later worked up heated discussion over Canadian National Railways finances, brought on by a bill authorizing the railway to issue $15,104,000 in securities to cover 1940 capital expenditures.

This bill, considered in committee of the whole, was passed through to third reading stage.

Side tracked to the question of C.N.R. deficits, Mr. Howe denied a claim by Joseph Harris, Conservative, "Toronto-Danforth," that there was no need to budget for a deficit this year with a war boom in transportation. Stories of increases of 25 to 38 per cent in traffic were misleading, the Minister said.

Last year, a $43,000,000 deficit had been budgeted for, but an extra large wheat crop and the war increased traffic so the deficit was $40,000,000. The position at present was $12,000,000 ahead of the budget calling for a $20,000,000 deficit, and munitions movements in the last half of the year would be better than the first expected.

WHEAT REVENUE DOWN

On the other hand, earnings from wheat movement this year would be about half of last year when the C.N.R. earned $24,000,000 under that item. At present storage facilities from the lakehead to the seaboard were filled, as were 15,000 freight cars, and the new crop was beginning to move.

One trouble was that the C.N.R. was a "dead-head" railway, losing 300,000 passes each year. But it could not afford to carry 50,000 soldiers.

The Senate approved the Treachery Act and the Excess Profits Tax Act. The Unemployment Insurance Bill was referred to the Senate banking and commerce committee, which heard representations from big business last night and continued consideration today.

Tobacco Trust Sued as Profiteer

NEW YORK — Tobacco manufacturers, whose products cost the American public about $1,000,000,000 a year, have been charged with violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act by the Department of Justice.

In the latest trust-busting action by Assistant Attorney-General Thurman Arnold, complaints of price-fixing and other measures to eliminate competition have been laid against the companies that produce all but a small fraction of the nation's cigarettes, cigars and smoking tobaccos.

The major companies cited in the criminal suits filed in Lexington, Ky., are: American Tobacco Co. (Lucky Strikes), R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. (Camels), Liggett and Myers Tobacco Co. (Chesterfields), P. Lorillard Co. (Old Golds), and Philip Morris Co. These companies also produce many lesser known brands.

Last year, their sales totaled $916,433,000, their profits $83,177,000, which is 18 per cent on sales, after deducting revenue of $451,838,000 paid to the government.

Today's drive against the tobacco companies is directly tied to the famous action against the tobacco trust 30 years ago. Then, the American Tobacco Co. was declared to be a monopoly and its dissolution was ordered. As a result, Reynolds and Liggett and Myers were split off from American.

The Justice Department now charges that the 1911 decree has not restored free competition. It maintains that the major companies have built up marketing systems "deliberately designed to enable them to dominate and dictate terms to growers and to the wholesalers and retailers," and that the companies "abuse their position of dominance by exacting harsh and oppressive terms from those with whom they deal."

George Washington Hill, president of the American Tobacco Co., one of the highest-paid executives in American industry, sent a three-page letter to his stockholders last night denying that American Tobacco had violated the law.

FLIES IN DAD'S AIRTRAIL
Squadron Leader J. H. Tudhope (top), who won the Military Cross as a flier in the first Great War, has learned that his 21-year-old son, Flying Officer W. F. Tudhope (bottom), has been awarded the D.F.C. for valor in night bombing raids over Germany.

$2,000,000 Camden Fire Toll 7 Dead

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—Gas fumes sickened firemen today as they tried to cool still-smoking ruins here to search for bodies of missing persons in a fire and explosions that destroyed a $1,000,000 paint plant and at least 67 midtown homes.

Fifteen were treated within a few hours. The fumes, rising from smoldering chemicals, drove all others from the four-block area around the site where stood the plant of the R. M. Hollingshead Company, in which the fire started. Firemen worked in 15-minute relays.

Mrs. Mary W. Kobus, director of public safety, expressed fear the death toll might exceed the number indicated in still incomplete checks. She said insurance underwriters thought probably seven persons were dead.

"But I am not so hopeful," said Mrs. Kobus, who remained at the scene throughout the night.

With the picture still far from clear, unofficial reports on the $2,000,000 disaster—worst in Camden's history—showed:
Two known dead:
Raymond Harter, 38, Hollingshead Company, chief inspector and general storage manager; burns of the entire body.

William Morrison, 49, fireman, died last night from heat, exhaustion and heart disease.

Four women and three men definitely missing: James A. Ben-

MAITLAND HEARD AT PRINCE RUPERT

PRINCE RUPERT (CP)—R. L. Maitland, K.C., British Columbia Conservative leader, holds that, much as his party might like to criticize some government policies, all energies should now be concentrated on the single aim of winning the war.

Addressing the Prince Rupert Conservative Association last night while on a tour of central and northern British Columbia, Mr. Maitland declared his was no electioneering jaunt. However, when the time for an election approached he proposed to tour the province and let the people know "what he had found and what the Conservative Party stood for."

He warned against "subversive elements" which he said had urged followers to take advantage of the war to build up their own strength.

deaux, 55; Nathaniel Banks; Laura Jacobowski, 24; Mrs. Bida Babcock, 32; Agnes Miller, 23; Mrs. Bessie Busa, 32, all employees, and William P. Bennett, 64, plant engineer.

Upwards of 200 were injured or affected by heat or smoke and many were treated at the scene. Of those in the hospitals, attendants said four were in critical condition.

R. M. Hollingshead Jr., plant president, said the company was working on an order for gun paint for the United States navy but declared he saw "no possibility of sabotage."

No Lightning War On Britain—Gayda

ROME (AP)—Virginio Gayda, Fascist editor who frequently expresses views of the Fascist government, warned Italians today not to expect an immediate attempt to invade Britain.

Gayda, writing in Il Giornale d'Italia, explained that, as contrasted with "the spectacular lightning campaign against France, more gradual tactics, designed to wear Britain down, have been decided on. This preparatory stage now is in progress, the editor said.

He predicted an invasion of Britain would be attempted later.

Only three weeks ago Gayda asserted that preparations for a vast Axis assault on Britain would be completed in a few days.

He wrote July 15 that Britain would have to choose between the "renovating, restorative forces of Europe or extremely grim violent war" in which her "overthrow" will be measured not by years or weeks of which Churchill spoke, but by days or hours.

RECOGNIZES EMPIRE'S POWER

Today Gayda wrote:

"The war against England cannot be lightning-like, spectacular and ponderous like the one against France."

"It must be one of constant hammering and exhaustion. It must strike and destroy with calculated method all the national and imperial forces of diverse nature and topography which may sustain British resistance."

The difference in the two types of war, Gayda said, "is due not so much to Britain's insularity, which is well equipped for national defence, as to the fact of its national system, its Empire spread out over the world, which is participating with varied powerful forces in defence and offence."

In the present phase, the Fascist editor went on, "Germany is carrying out two essential tasks, progressively to disorganize and pulverize the entire internal system of the island and to cut its communication with the external world."

This, he said, "is a necessary premise for war action carried more directly against British territory."

"No less essential is isolation of the island," Gayda wrote. "The combined action of German bombers and torpedo craft today means rapid and uninterrupted process in this task of destruction."

IN MEDITERRANEAN

Italy's mission in this campaign, Gayda said, is to "engage and wear down British naval forces concentrated largely in the Mediterranean, the Red Sea and the Indian Ocean."

"Italy is engaging in the Mediterranean, in African territories and waters, powerful air and naval forces of the British Empire which wear out in daily service and are cut off from defensive and offensive activities against Germany."

Snow surveys made by an army of 2,000 men in western mountains each winter help forecast the later water flow in western streams.

WHEN the mistress of the "show" dresses are sold at a fraction of their regular prices, she can buy them because they fit her trim figure. And her figure is trim because she makes Peek Frean's VITA-WEAT Crispbread part of her daily food.

VITA-WEAT Crispbread is a rich source of nourishment because it is made from all the wheat. It is non-fattening because the starch has been made digestible. Try VITA-WEAT! It is "bitty" . . . appetizing . . . satisfying. Get an airtight carton from your grocer.

Al Smith Backs Wendell Willkie

NEW YORK (AP)—Alfred E. Smith, Democratic United States presidential candidate a dozen years ago, who took his first famous walk out of his party's convention in 1936, has declared himself for Wendell L. Willkie, the Republican standard-bearer in this year's election.

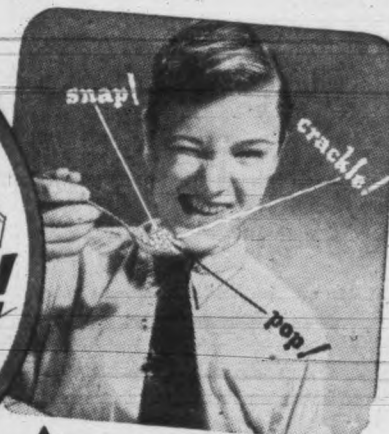

In a formal statement, the former Governor of New York declared that "in my opinion, the recent so-called Democratic convention in Chicago sounded the death knell of the Democratic Party."

As a result, he said, he and "millions of other genuine Democrats throughout the United States will continue to protect and defend true Democratic principles and will in no way willingly or silently tolerate any foreign blocs, call them New Dealers, or what not."

"In the forthcoming election we will march under the banner of Wendell L. Willkie, a life-long Democrat."

Have you
discovered it yet?

HE'S IN THE GROOVE at breakfast, too! Leader of the high school band Junior's mornings used to be full of sour notes. But now Pop, Crackle and Snap put in hot licks that sing his breakfast blues away.

*They stay crisp too, and how!

Hundreds of tests have shown that Kellogg's Rice Krispies go on floating in cream for hours. Rice Krispies is the registered trade mark of the Kellogg Company of Canada Limited for its delicious brand of oven-popped rice. You'll find them absolutely unique in form and utterly different from other ready-to-eat cereals. Get a supply for your family today . . . or if you breakfast out, ask for Kellogg's Rice Krispies in the individual, wax-wrapped package! Made only by Kellogg's, London, Canada.

"MERRY MOTHER" the family call her, since she solved the whole family's breakfast problem. And she enjoys the different flavour of those fresh, golden-brown morsels just as much as Dad or the kids.

BOOS VANISH WHEN CRACKLE POPS!

"Like nasty old breakfasts," says mother. "But Peggy must eat her breakfast. . . oh what shall I do."

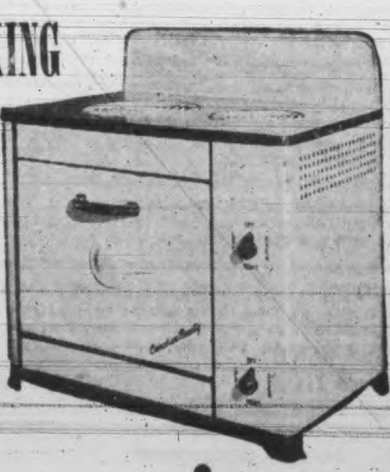

"I know," says mother, "let me and my mates sing the Krispies song and Peggy'll want her breakfast!"

"Peggy loves to eat those golden-brown Rice Krispies every day. They're fun to eat, and good for her, too!"

Engagements

EARL-SAVAGE

The engagement is announced between Lovey, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Savage of Langford, to Gunner Frederick George Earl, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Earl of 2137 Spring Road. The wedding will take place in August.

HUGHES-McTAGGART

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McTaggart, Sevenoaks, Saanich, announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Marjorie May, to Mr. Robert Harold Hughes, only son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes, 1120 Vancouver Street, the wedding to take place August 9.

BABY'S

UPSET STOMACH QUICKLY CORRECTED

BABY'S little "Tummy" is often easily upset. It is easily righted again, too, if you know just how to do it. Let Mrs. M. S. Alway, of London, Ont., tell you—Baby's Own Tablets are a great help at the first sign of upset stomach, during teething time or when a cold is coming on. They work quickly yet gently to carry away poisons and promote quiet sleep. Walking floors at night is unknown in our home.

And Mrs. W. R. Sharp says: "I nursed my baby shortly after being alarmed over a motor accident and that upset her almost to the point of convulsions. I gave her Baby's Own Tablets and she soon stopped crying—went to sleep and when she awakened was her own good self again."

Equally effective for diarrhoea, colic, teething troubles, simple croup, constipation and simple fever. Sweet-tasting, easy to take, prompt in their action yet harmless. Analyst's certificate in every box. Buy a box today for money back if not satisfied.

Major J. C. Cooke, D.S.O., M.C., of "Grantfort," Sooke, announces the engagement of his younger daughter, Susan Felicity, to Mr. Philip Gordon-Holmes, 17th Searchlight Battery, R.C.A., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Gordon-Holmes, Admiral's Road. The wedding will take place at Emmanuel Baptist Church, August 10, at 2 p.m.

Social and Personal

Mrs. C. J. Collins, Arm Street, who has been visiting in Calgary with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Trudel, has returned home.

Mrs. Alicia Sandy, Menzies Street, who has been spending the last 10 days at Resthaven, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. Lukin Johnston of Vancouver came over from the mainland today to visit Mrs. A. E. Hodgins, Fairfield Road.

Mr. and Mrs. John V. Venables and little sons of Port Angeles have returned home after visiting Mr. Venables' parents, Rev. F. V. Venables and Mrs. Venables, St. Saviour's Rectory.

Mrs. J. E. Mathews of Tacoma, who has been spending the last few weeks on Vancouver Island, is at the James Bay Hotel and will return home tomorrow. Major Mathews preceded her home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Walters of Vancouver have returned home after spending the week-end with Mrs. Walters' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dan H. R. Wilson, Croft Street.

Mrs. T. Potter left for her home in Huntsville, Ontario, yesterday after spending six weeks with her sister, Mrs. Jean Reed, 616 Constance Avenue, Esquimalt.

Mrs. A. R. Turnbull and Valerie will leave on Sunday to join Lieut. A. R. Turnbull, R.C.N., in Halifax, N.S.

Miss Pamela Bennett of Vancouver came over to Victoria yesterday to spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. G. A. Bennett, Rockland Avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Hunter and their daughter, Eva, of Honolulu, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. S. J. Willis, 1521 Fort Street. Mrs. Hunter was formerly Grace Hall, being the daughter of the late Dr. Ernest A. Hall of Victoria and Mrs. Hall, Palo Alto, Calif. Dr. Hunter, who is professor of history at the University of Hawaii, Honolulu, has been on exchange at Birmingham University, Alabama, for the past year, and he and his family will motor down to San Francisco at the end of the week en route for Honolulu.

Miss Lyla McCaw entertained last evening at her home on Howe Street in honor of Miss Phyllis May, an August bride-to-be. Upon her arrival the guest of honor was presented with a corsage bouquet of pink roses and violets. Games were played during evening, the winners being Miss Alice Douglas and Miss Flora Jones. The table, at which a sit-down supper was served, was arranged in a color scheme of yellow. The invited guests included Mesdames R. Lawrence, G. MacIntosh, A. Beere, and Misses Patricia May, Kitty Cave, Flora Jones, Alice Douglas and Kathleen Powell.

A miscellaneous shower was given recently by Mrs. B. Sage and Mrs. F. R. Woolsey at the former's home, Mason Street, in honor of Miss Olive Rowbotham, whose marriage will take place soon to Mr. Frank Taylor. Upon her arrival the bride-to-be was presented with a corsage bouquet of pink and white carnations by Master Stanley Sage. After the presentation of the gifts a buffet supper was served. The table was arranged with pink and white sweet peas centred with a bride's cake, decorated with a miniature bride and groom. Among those present were: Mesdames Newman, Eaton, Rowbotham, Stock, Mathew, Michellin, Miss Eaton, Miss Francis Adlam and Miss Evelyn Adlam.

Mrs. A. C. Hancock, 42 Cadillac Avenue, was hostess recently at a linen shower held in honor of Mrs. Earl-Hemsworth (nee Harper), a recent bride. Mrs. Hemsworth was presented by Marguerite Hancock with a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and carnations, and a decorated box filled with gifts. During the evening vocal solos by Mrs. G. R. Gilron and Miss Isobel Dickens were enjoyed, also pianoforte solos by Marguerite Hancock and Irene Reid. Prizes for the contests were won by Irene Reid and Mrs. Mannix. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Dunderdale and Mrs. J. Harper. The guests included Mesdames J. Harper, H. McDonald, R. Gilron, G. Austin, J. Humphries, T. Lynn, V. A. Green, T. Muckle, Q. Bennett, L. Mannix, C. Shingleton, G. Hemsworth, A. Dunderdale, G. R. Gilron, B. Paltier, H. Wallis and the Misses June McDonald, Marguerite Hancock, Marguerite Hancock, Irene Reid, Blanche Mannix, Evelyn Green, Peggy Green, Doris Gilron, Robert Dickens, and Peggy Townsend (Vancouver).

Royal Oak Wedding Today is Pretty Ceremony

Wilkinson Road United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 11.30 this morning when Rev. William Allan united in marriage Bertha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David William Phillips, Royal Oak, to Mr. Merwyn Elliott McVicar, Port Alberni, son of Mrs. H. E. McVicar of Vancouver, and the late Mr. D. A. McVicar.

The church had been beautifully decorated with flowers in shades of pink and white, the bride and groom standing beneath an arch of pink roses and white heather. Tall baskets of gladioli and shasta daisies were used, and the guest pews were marked with roses and white heather tied with white satin ribbon.

Miss Margaret Pringle presided at the organ and as the register was being signed Mrs. R. G. Martlew of Port Alberni sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful gown of imported oyster suede satin, cut on flowing lines, the skirt forming a short train. The bolero jacket with long sleeves tapering to a point over the hand, featuring a high neckline, was fastened down the back with a row of tiny self-covered buttons. Her veil of silk net was arranged beneath a halo of braided net with clusters of orange blossoms on each side. She carried a bouquet of rapture roses and bouvardia, set in a frill of white tulle.

Miss Eva Phillips as her sister's bridesmaid, wore a gown of shell pink silk net over taffeta with frilled net puffed sleeves. She wore a shirred taffeta turban, the front being massed with tiny pink velvet flowers, and carried an arm bouquet of gerbera daisies and scabious in pastel shades, tied with pink tulle.

Dr. G. B. Helem of Port Alberni was best man and the ushers were: Messrs. George Harris of Port Alberni and David Idlens of Courtenay.

RECEPTION AT INN

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Royal Oak Inn, where the guests were welcomed by Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. McVicar. The bride wore a smart gown of blue heaven crepe and a model hat of navy straw with silk flowers and corsage of tallman roses, and the latter in a beige silk lace gown with hat to match and corsage of pink carnations and sweet peas.

The bridal party stood before the fireplace, which was banked with gladioli, shasta daisies and fern to receive the felicitations of their friends.

A buffet luncheon was served in the dining-room, the table being centred with a bowl of pink and white roses, flanked with tall pink tapers in crystal candelabra. The three-tiered wedding cake, set in folds of palest pink tulle, studded with rosebuds, was cut by the bride, followed by a toast to her health, proposed by Mr. H. S. Pringle.

Miss Lillah Smith and Miss Marjorie McMillan of Port Alberni, poured tea and coffee. During the reception Mrs. Martlew sang "My World."

Later in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. McVicar left on a honeymoon trip to Banff and Lake Louise, the bride wearing a frock of Alice blue crepe, navy blue

16,000 Pieces of Cake Cut by Clubwomen

Twenty-five thousand sandwiches, 16,000 pieces of cake, hundreds of gallons of tea! This was the huge scale on which the catering was undertaken for the tea served at the Red Cross gala at Government House this afternoon.

And when it is realized that, up till last night 5,000 tickets for admission, which included tea, had been sold, some idea may be gauged of the colossal task entailed in feeding a multitude whose numbers probably will reach 6,000 before the afternoon is over.

The Women's Canadian Club undertook the serving of the tea, and provided the cakes and some of the sandwiches as its contribution to the general beneficiary cause. An appeal to its members for donations of cakes brought in over 500.

CAKE SHOPS BUSY

While many of these were home made, a large proportion were obtained in town, and cake shops as well as bakery departments in the large stores experienced a bumper business in delicious cakes destined for the garden party.

Members of the club worked all day yesterday and again last evening at the Y.W.C.A., making 1,200 sandwiches and cutting the cakes into 16,000 pieces—a huge task in itself. The balance of the sandwiches were made by an augmented staff at Government House yesterday and this morning. Mrs. Hamber, with her customary generosity, provided the bulk of the sandwiches, also the tea, cream and sugar.

To facilitate the serving of all these refreshments, two huge marquees were erected on the lawns. A little army of 100 members of the Women's Canadian Club poured tea and acted as assistants in the marquees and were assisted in the serving by another bevy of 75 girls.

To assist in the mechanics of preparation, an electrical hot water tank and other equipment had been erected at the back of the larger marquee, while the array of cups and saucers, spoons and plates and other implements needed was formidable.

Movies Color Child Guests' Idea of Canada

By GLADYS ARNOLD

LONDON (CP)—Movies are responsible for the majority of ideas about Canada held by the children going overseas under the British government's evacuation scheme.

"You hall a 'car' in Canada when you want to go somewhere, and you do it like this with your thumb," said Barbara Wilson, eight, who with her brother, Bruce, 12, left recently to stay with Mrs. H. Storey in Perth, Ont.

Bessie Mizen, eight, who with her brother Ronald doesn't know for sure where she is going, displayed her new "jumper." "And I've two vests and two petticoats on me, too," she said wisely. "It's very cold in Canada. I've seen pictures of Canada in the cinema, there's lots of snow there."

The majority of the children going overseas want to live in the Rocky Mountains, a few on the banks of the St. Lawrence and some on the Pacific "because it's so far that we'll have to go a long way in the train," one boy stated.

WANT TO SEE NIAGARA FALLS

Niagara Falls, grain elevators, buffaloes, skating carnivals, "ice" sailing and dog-sleigh competitions are Canadian drawing cards for these travelers.

To see men "skating over the cliffs, and bears at liberty in the parks" attracts Shellee Roe, nine, who is going to her aunts Amy and Eva in Vancouver, but she doesn't know their other names.

Rhoda Smith, nine, has her heart set on "winter parties" on the mountain tops. I do want to go to some of these lovely winter parties," she said.

"What do you mean by winter parties?"

"Oh, father has a friend who goes to Switzerland. He says that in the chalets on the mountains you ski all day; and then in the evening you dance and have wonderful parties. He said they do exactly the same in Canada."

Her small brother Arthur wants to live on a ranch and see Indians, but the elder brother, Raymond, 13, told him scoffingly: "There aren't any more to be seen. They are all away in the woods or on the reserves—it's all gone and past that Indian stuff. My father says Canada is quite a civilized and advanced place now."

James Calvert, 15, is in his last year of high school and is going to Regina with his brother, Kenneth.

"We'll be living in the foothills, not far from the Rockies, won't we?" James asked seriously.

While Georgina Laville, slim, brown-eyed and very pretty, is going to Saskatoon to Mrs. Bress-ton, she hoped to be able to see her "granny" very often in Toronto.

"How far do you think it is?" I asked her.

"Oh, I know," she said. "I've an atlas to scale and measured it. It's exactly 320 miles."

Clubwomen's News

Christ Church Cathedral Red Cross Sewing Circle will meet in the Guild Room of the Memorial Hall Friday at 2.30.

Daughters of St. George, Princess Patricia No. 238, will hold their regular business meeting in the K. of C. Hall on Friday at 8. Arrangement will be made for a trip to the summer home of Mrs. Quinn at the Lagoon.

An executive meeting of the Royal Oak Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. F. Reeves, Elk Lake, Monday evening. Arrangements were made to hold an old-time dance in the hall on Friday, August 16. The hall will be given free of charge for the National Registration during that period. Mrs. E. R. Heal was elected official delegate to the provincial conference in Vancouver on August 28, 29 and 30. The institute picnic scheduled for August 8 has been canceled.

Social and Personal

Mrs. David Ayerst and her two children, Janet and Barbara, of Lytham, Lancs., have arrived from England to visit Major and Mrs. George Sisman and Mr. Ayerst's cousin, Miss Frances Price, Munro Street, Esquimalt.

Miss Lorna Farrell entertained recently with a cup and saucer shower for Miss Beverly Pearce at her home on Connaught Drive. The gifts were placed in a silver and mauve sailing ship, while mauve phlox centred the supper table, flanked with lighted tapers in silver holders. The guests included Miss Beverly Pearce, Mrs. J. Farrell, Mrs. W. Wallace and the Misses Judy and Pat Pearce, Irene Williams, Florence Robertson, Gladys Rawlings, Gladys Kitt, Muriel Farrell and Jean Taylor.

Another small party of guests arrived by the Vancouver boat this afternoon from England. Mrs. Cyril Trevelyan Jones of Hayes, near London, accompanied by her two small sons, Glenison, aged 2½, and Barrie, aged eight months. Mrs. Jones arrived in Canada on the Duchess of Atholl recently and after a short stay with her sister, Mrs. Reginald Wright of Calgary, is here to stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney P. Tucker, at "Koala House," Viaduct Ave., Saanich. Mrs. Jones reports the voyage entirely unadventurous and comfortable enough amongst the 800 or more on board.

A miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Peggy Webb, whose marriage will take place next month, was given on Tuesday evening by Mrs. Stanley Ralph and Miss Janet Robinson at the home of Mrs. Ralph, 460 Dupplin Road. On her arrival the bride-to-be was presented with a corsage bouquet of roses and snapdragons. The many useful gifts were concealed in a basket beautifully decorated in pink and white. Games and contests were enjoyed during the evening and later a buffet supper was served from a table centred with a white cloth. The invited guests included: Mesdames F. W. McKinnon, W. Webb, A. Robinson, C. Pendray, Holland, E. M. McTaggart, S. Ralph, Misses Peggy Robinson, Helen Hilda Webb, Janet Robinson, Helen McKinnon, Dorcas Pendray, Dorcas Mackereth, Jean Holland, Francis Hurston, Mary Ralph and Messrs. F. W. McKinnon, Stan Ralph, Len Humphrey, Henry Robinson, Gordon McTaggart and Alex Dash.

Prior to 1858 and the Atlantic cable, the fastest communication overseas was via ship.

Saves Time—Energy—It's so quick and easy to make jam and jelly with Certo. That's because you need give only a one-minute to two-minute full rolling boil for jam—only a half-minute to a minute for jelly. "Making jam and jelly with Certo takes less time" agrees Mrs. R. Allard, Prizewinner at Portage Exhibition (Man.). "They do not need to boil so long."

More Jam or Jelly—Since so little juice can boil away in this very short boil, you get about half again more jam or jelly from an equal amount of fruit. Mrs. Beverly Kenward, Prizewinner at Kamloops Exhibition (B.C.), says: "I get more jam or jelly from the same amount of fruit."

Sure Results—If only you follow exactly the tested recipes provided free with Certo, you never need fear results. Mrs. N. H. Lang, Prizewinner at Merrickville Fair (Ont.), writes: "...the chances of failure when directions are carefully followed is absolutely nil."

Fresher Taste—Brighter Colour—In this shorter boil the fresh, natural taste and colour are retained—not spoiled or changed as in the old-fashioned long boil. "I find my fruit does not boil away and the flavour remains," writes Miss L. Miller, Prizewinner at Vermilion Fair (Alta.).

CERTO is concentrated FRUIT PECTIN . . . the natural jelling substance extracted from fruit in which it is most abundant.

FREE BOOK OF 72 RECIPES

Under the label of every bottle of Certo there is a book of 72 tested recipes for jams and jellies. Different fruits need different handling, so Certo gives you a separate recipe for each fruit. . . Be sure to follow each recipe exactly.

A business meeting of Local No. 101, Truck Drivers' and Helpers' Union, will be held in the Labor Hall, 602 Broughton Street, August 1, at 8.

The Gorge unit of the Red Cross will meet tomorrow afternoon in the basement of the Gorge Presbyterian Church at 2 p.m. All members are requested to be present as this will be the last meeting for a month.

Lightning struck twice in the same place last night at the drawing for war stamp prizes during the city celebration committee's cheer-up concert in Beacon Hill Park.

W. Craigmyle won two $4 certificates in succession on the fourth and fifth drawing. Miss Edna Coates won the first prize carrying $8 in stamps, while Mrs. M. Zukinsky took the second, and Dick Campbell the third. A crowd estimated by officials at over 3,000 participated in the singing and dancing. Their numbers included members of all the services, as well as visitors from far-flung parts of the Empire. One registered from London, England, another from Sydney, Australia, while the number of U.S. visitors was legion. Mabel Irvine's old-time orchestra provided music for dancing on the green, and Frank Tupman led the community singing. As a special attraction, Miss Peggy Walton presented the song "Canada Calls," to the piano accompaniment of Ethel James. The collection for Canada's war effort was turned over to the city controller's office. Alderman W. H. Davies, president of the committee, announced another program would be held Friday evening, weather permitting.

By PETE SALLAWAY

THE PATHS of Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney have grown even farther apart with the years.

While the Old Man Mauler was busting up that wrestler in Atlanta the other night, Tunney and Mrs. Tunney were among social lights applauding Lily Pons in New York.

Max Baer considered Tony Galento and King Levinsky disgraces to the fight game... flukes and freaks who had no business in the ring.

Baer, of course, always was a credit to the back-busting dodge.

Vince DiMaggio finally appears to have found himself as a major leaguer... with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Frank Frisch contends the oldest of the three brothers has blotted out the shoulder high, inside blind spot which caused him to establish a National League record for strikeouts.

He did it by holding his bat higher, and keeping his left arm down... out of his line of vision.

Ball games have been called for many things and under strange circumstances, but it remained for an Interstate League umpire to call one because of the sun.

It was a twilight affair at Lancaster, Pa., and the arbiter agreed with the batter that the glaring rays made it difficult for both.

Since he hit better than 500 for six straight games without glasses, it will take an entire company of oculists to force Mel Ott into spectacles again.

You can't tell anybody in Washington the New York Yankees have fallen. The Senators bagged only two games from the champions in 10.

Yankee scouts recall: Miller Huggins laughing when Home Run Baker recommended a young farmer boy named Jimmy Foxe, who hit the ball as far as Babe Ruth.

Tris Speaker paying not the slightest attention to Joe Medwick when Muscles worked out with the Newark Bears.

Hank Gowdy informing John McGraw that Paul Waner couldn't hit.

McGraw, getting his first look at Big Poison in a Pittsburgh uniform... and firing Gowdy.

McGraw, who had searched for a Jewish star for years, telling Henry Greenberg he wouldn't do.

Billy Terry advising Frank McCormick to stick to his job as shipping clerk in an antique shop.

Terry dismissing Buddy Lewis as being too slow and lacking pep.

Pie Traynor being chased out of Boston Braves' field.

So Yankee forgers, the most efficient in the business, take no chances of missing a big leaguer.

Scout Kritchell and the Yankee staff dispel the popular belief that there are fewer ball (Turn to Page 14 Col. 6)

There is just no way to make sense out of the American League pennant scramble.

First the Boston Red Sox looked as if they were going places. Then Cleveland Indians went on the rampage. Intermittently New York Yankees showed signs of awakening. More recently Detroit Tigers have been setting the pace.

But today for at least the fifth time this season the leaders are in a tie.

Cleveland Indians moved back into a deadlock for the lead last night.

Bob Feller kept eight hits scattered efficiently to beat Boston Red Sox 2 to 1. It was his 17th triumph of the year and came at exactly the proper time to capitalize on a three-game losing streak by the Tigers, who were dunked 8 to 6 by the Yankees.

The National League issue appeared more cut and dried after Cincinnati Reds snatched a 6 to 3 decision over New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers lost an 8 to 2 netural tussle to Pittsburgh Pirates. This set Brooklyn back to eight games behind the Reds.

Cincinnati's victory came through a four-run uprising in the eighth inning and was credited to Paul Derringer, his 19th.

St. Louis Cardinals pounced on Boston Bees with a 19-hit attack that was good for a 13 to 5 victory. Johnny Mize hit his 27th and 28th home runs of the year.

The Phillies managed to nose out Chicago Cubs 7 to 5 although outhit 16 to 11. The difference was chiefly a five-run second inning staged by the Phils.

Chicago White Sox extended their surge at the expense of Philadelphia Athletics with a 3 to 1 victory on the five-hit hurling of Jack Knott and Pete Appleton.

Dutch Leonard shut out St. Louis Browns 4 to 0 for Washington in a night game.

COAST LEAGUE

Poor Dick Barrett. The Seattle Rainier's chubby pitcher was down on his luck today, disconsolate despite the feat of beating Los Angeles in a Coast League game, 5 to 2, for his 17th win of the season.

It put him abreast of his teammate, Hal Turpin, for the league's best total of wins. But neither this fact, nor the fanning of 11 Angels to lengthen his strikeout string could console unhappy Barrett.

It seems Barrett has batting ambitions, too, and last night's engagement fractured his streak of safe hits in seven straight games. Julio Bonetti and Joe Berry held him hitless.

The Seattle riffer, with the help of infielder Dick Gyselman, who homed inside the park with two on in the sixth for the margin of victory, set the Angels back in their effort to usurp the league's second place, currently filled by Oakland.

The Oaks won, after losing six out of seven last week to Hollywood, spanked San Diego 6 to 1, dropping the Padres into sixth place. Henry Phippen pitched a six-hit game.

The Hollywood Stars climbed to leadership of the second division by trimming Sacramento, 6 to 2. It was the Stars' fourth straight win and the Sac's first loss in six tries.

In the Portland Beavers, seventh-place San Francisco found a team it could beat. In a game speckled with eight errors, the Seals defeated the cellar crowd, 7 to 4.

Lacrosse Race Really Tightens

VANCOUVER (CP)—Three teams are neck and neck in the stretch drive for leadership in the Inter-city Box Lacrosse League today with only one game between them.

Richmond Farmers last night trounced North Shore Indians 20 to 7, to strengthen their third-place hold and race in one point behind New Westminster Adanacs. Burrards are another point ahead of Adanacs, with a total of 26.

There will be a change in standings, however, tomorrow, when Adanacs play Richmond, and either Adanacs will hold first place by a point or Richmond will share it with Burrards.

Richmond held a 3 to 2 lead at the end of the first quarter last night, but by halftime were ahead 9 to 3. Each team sank two goals in the third quarter, before Farmers turned on the pressure.

Blackie Black and Johnny Smith shared scoring honors for Richmond, each netting four, while John Jacobs and Dominic Baker each sank two for Indians.

Jimmy Rimmer Is Dead at Halifax

HALIFAX (CP)—James R. Rimmer, 43, well-known golf professional, died at his home here yesterday. He was born in Liverpool, England. A son, Edward, lives with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gray, of Jasper Park, Alta.

Jimmy Rimmer was well known to Victoria golfers through his long association with the course at Jasper Park as professional. Rimmer, who spent one winter here, left the holiday resort to accept the position as pro with a Halifax club.

Record of 3,361

MELBOURNE, Australia (CP)—Walter Lindrum, world billiards champion, bettered his world record today under the new ball line rule with a break of 3,361 in a match with his brother Fred. Lindrum's previous record, set in December, was 2,456. He also holds the record under the old rule with a break of 4,137.

THE WEATHER

VICTORIA, 5 a.m. today.—A moderate breeze from the north, with light showers of rain. The weather continues unsettled and cool on the coast, while light showers have occurred in the British Columbia interior and also over Manitoba and Saskatchewan. It has become warmer in the prairie provinces.

Alerts Bolster Lead

Manager Harry Sargison's leading Alert Service boxla men went four points ahead of Ted Menzies' Bays last night when they administered a 24 to 17 beating to Jokers in a senior engagement in the Willows Sports Centre. Sharpshooting Wally Williams again led the redshirt scoring parade with seven goals.

"A mere handful of fans turned out to watch the battle. Standings to date show Alerts with 10 wins in 13 starts and a total of 20 points; Bays 8 wins in 12 starts and a total of 16 points; Jokers 1 win in 13 starts and 2 points.

Next game will be played Friday night. Bays opposing the cellar squad, with Oak Bay No. 1 and Essler's Coffee Shop meeting in the preliminary.

The blackshirted Jokers kept within close range of their opponents for three quarters on the scoreboard, but in the final 15 minutes of play the Alerts rocketed well into the lead when they put heavy pressure on Jimmy Skellern in the black shirts' net and beat him eight times.

Jokers bagged four goals in the closing quarter. Best part of Alerts' game was their shooting. Their passing was off color. Two redshirts who turned in fine performances were Tom Carney and Jack Ferguson.

Skellern had a busy night and was literally swamped with shots during Alert power attacks in the last two periods. He stopped 40 shots and 24 got by him. Ernie Gawley in Alerts' goal stopped 26 shots and let 17 pass.

Buzz Brown and Ian McDonald were runners-up for scoring honors in Alerts' camp with three goals apiece, while Andy Ovcharek and Keith Ludbrook with three each topped Joker scorers.

In the opener Douglas Tire defeated Owl Drug, 14 to 6, in a junior tilt. Tirmen led 5 to 1 at the end of the first quarter and were held scoreless while druggrists added one in the next session. Winners scored nine goals to Owl Drug's four in closing 15 minutes.

Senior teams and scorers follow:

Alert Service—Gawley, Bischlager, Williams 7, Thompson 2, D. Coates 2, Ferguson 1, Pickford 2, Cocklin, Brown 3, Carney 2, N. Coates 2, McDonald 3 and Holyoak.

Jokers—Skellern, Uttke, Coleman 2, L. Patrick 1, McLean 2, J. Smith, R. Allen 2, Ovcharek 3, D. Mair 1, Ludbrook 2, Maughan, McLennan 1 and Pridham 2.

Service Events at National Track Meet

HAMILTON, Ont. (CP)—Rivalry among athletes of Canada's armed services will come to white heat August 10 at the Canadian track and field championships, which this year feature two events for the army, navy and air force.

Officials said yesterday at least 100 entries are expected in the 100 yards, 220 yards, and a quarter-mile relay.

Dizzy Dean on Way Up Again

DALLAS (AP)—Dizzy Dean is again on the way up, says Roy Johnson, the man who ought to know.

Johnson is manager of Tulsa Oilers of the Texas League. The Chicago Cubs sent Dean to Tulsa in the hope of straightening out his ailing arm.

"Dizzy showed me more the other night (Monday night, when Dean beat Dallas 1 to 0 with a two-hit performance) than any time since he was bought by Chicago from St. Louis," declared Johnson.

Johnson, a coach with the Cubs when Dean went to Chicago, was there until this season and knows all about Dizzy's arm trouble. "His arm doesn't hurt any more. He can go nine innings and he wants to work," Johnson said.

"He was too soft when he came to me but now he's in shape again, thanks to this Texas League weather that's good for sore arms, and because he's got to do a lot of work."

GRANT DEFEATED

SOUTHAMPTON, L.I. (AP)—Bryan (Bilby) Grant, of Atlanta, was eliminated from the Meadow Club invitation tournament yesterday by Seymour Greenberg of Chicago, 62, 37, 64.

Grant's exit was the only surprise in an otherwise uneventful day which saw the favored players, led by national champion Bobby Riggs, enter the third round. Riggs, who has won the title for three years, knocked out Leon Everett of Los Angeles, 64, 63.

House of David Team to Show

Victoria baseball fans should witness three good exhibitions of the diamond pastime with the visit here on Friday and Saturday of Manager Harry Crump's colored House of David ball tossers. The touting bewhiskered gents will be seen in action against the Victoria Club at Athletic Park. Friday's fixture will start at 6 and Saturday's twin bill at 2:30 and 6.

Davidans are no strangers to Victoria fans. They played here first in 1938 and returned last season. Their line-up studded with smart performers, the visitors can be relied upon to turn in some smart exhibitions.

In the two final games last year Victoria dropped a 4 to 3 decision and held them to a 1 to 1 tie.

Locals are at top form at present, judging by their two exhibitions last Saturday against the Cincinnati Buckeyes.

Les Stobo, young soldier hurler, who worked so well last week, will probably get another chance to display his ability in exhibition baseball. Stan Davies, another smart pitcher, Russ Richardson, Lloyd Carr, Duff Waddell and Ray Matland are the other members of the local hurling staff.

Hard-hitting Tommy Rooney, out of town last week, will probably return to the Victoria line-up for the games with the Davidans. One of the hardest hitters in the local league, Rooney is one of the few players to lift a ball over the Vancouver Street fence.

Ward Gains Tie For Golf Crown

TACOMA, Wash. (AP)—United States amateur champion Bud Ward of Spokane won the glory and Emery Zimmerman, pint-sized Portland professional, won the gold yesterday as they finished in a tie, with four-under-par totals of 280 strokes, for the Washington open golf championship.

It will be Ward, the slugger, versus Zimmerman, the stylist, when they face each other in an 18-hole title playoff tomorrow over the exacting Firecrest course.

With the pressure on and realizing they needed but one birdie on the finishing holes of the 72-hole tournament to win, Zimmerman and Ward had to be content with pars.

Ward, teeing off on the 15th when he learned Zimmerman had finished with a one-under-par 70 for the 280 total, rimmed the cups on the 15th, 16th and 17th to miss birdies. He missed a 12-footer on the final hole, then tanked a short one for the tie.

At Zimmerman, Emery's tall brother, also from Portland, took a bogey five on the final hole to miss the playoff by a stroke and take second place with 281 strokes.

Ward, in his typical fashion, scrambled throughout the tournament. His uncanny pitch shots and long putts saved him constantly.

Zimmerman, rarely off-line, was conspicuous for his steadyness.

Manager and Ball Players Are Fined

NEW YORK (AP)—Manager Frankie Frisch, two of his Pittsburgh Pirates players and catcher Babe Phelps of Brooklyn Dodgers were fined a total of $200 yesterday by president Ford Frick of the National League for Monday's hostilities at Ebbets Field.

Frisch, tossed out of a game for the sixth time this season, was fined $100.

Phelps and Pittsburgh shortstop Arky Vaughan received a $25 penalty each for their fight in the ninth inning. Second-sacker Frank Gustine of the Pirates drew a $50 fine for "misconduct on the field."

Pigeon Racing

The Victoria and District Racing Pigeon Club held its third young bird race of the season from Tacoma, an air line distance of 90 miles. Sixty-six birds from 15 lofts, were liberated.

Militia Will Not Hinder Hockey

OTTAWA (CP)—Service in the nonpermanent active militia should not interfere unduly with professional hockey players playing on Canadian and United States teams this winter, according to available information here.

If players are volunteer members of the militia they will get their training in during the summer. If they are called up under the National Resources Mobilization Act they may do their 30-day stretch of training at any time between October 1, 1940, and October 1, 1941.

They should be able to arrange with local military authorities to get their training in either before or after the hockey season, it was said.

SIX PLAYERS' TRAIN

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP)—Six professional hockey players who live in this district have joined the Scots Fusiliers of Canada, North Waterloo's nonpermanent active militia unit.

Included in the band of puck-chasers who began their training yesterday are the members of Boston Bruins' famous kraut line, Milt Schmidt, Bobby Bauer and Porky Dumart. Dutch Hiller and Ott Heller of New York Rangers also have joined.

Cameron's dugout with fire in his eye. Before reaching Tooby he was surrounded by his players and forcibly escorted from the field. Pascoe continued to argue vehemently from the sidelines. Result was Cameron's team blew completely. Berry, the next batter, singled over shortstop, scoring two runs to give Longshoremen the lead. Two more hits resulted in as many runs and the ball game was all over.

Cameron went down one, two three in the ninth. After play was finished many of the fans hung around the park entrance and Tooby was treated to a chorus of boos and catcalls as he walked out.

Longshoremen scored an unearned run in the third inning to take the lead. Errors gave Cameron's single runs in the fourth and fifth to set the stage for the uprising in the eighth.

Ralph Bonner, on the mound for Longshoremen, allowed only four hits. Vic Booth, pitching for Cameron, was found for eight.

Cameron booted the ball badly at times no less than six errors being chalked up against them.

Short score—

Cameron 2 4 6
Longshoremen 5 8 2
Batteries—Booth and Milliken; Bonner and Berry.

TIMES WINS REPLAY

With the veteran Rom Knott returning to the mound to hurl snappy ball, the Times hung a surprise 7 to 1 setback on the Victoria Machinery Depot last night at Victoria West Park in a replay of a protested game. The result deadlocked the C section playoff at one win apiece with the third and deciding battle set for tonight at Central Park.

After taking a two-run lead in the second inning the evening newspaper lads were never headed.

Saanich Council Propose Zoning In Gordon Head

Restriction of home values on waterfront property in the Gordon Head area, between Haro Street and Victoria Drive, is proposed by the Saanich Council.

The council last night authorized preparation of a zoning by-law for this region with the exception of what is known as the Vantreight subdivision near Margaret's Bay.

The area concerned is roughly bounded by Haro Street, Fernside Road, Ash Street, Cordova Bay Road and Victoria Drive. It is proposed to require homes in the area to be of 1,000 square feet of living quarters or more. The section commonly known as the Vantreight subdivision is exempted from the proposed limitation.

Councillor E. C. Warren, Ward Two, opposed the motion on the grounds the restriction imposed a hardship on property owners of moderate means in the region affected. He was joined in opposition by Councillor L. H. Passmore, Ward Seven, who felt a reassessment of the area concerned should be made, pending present values were below true values.

A public hearing will be arranged later to hear views of property owners concerned.

DOCTORS CONTINUE DISCUSSIONS HERE

The 18th annual convention of the western section, American Urological Association, spent the second morning of a three-day session yesterday with further discussions on treatment and study of diseases.

Several entertainment features were presented Monday. The annual golf tournament took place at Victoria Golf Club. A "stag" dinner followed.

The women's program included a coffee party in the hotel at noon and a drive over the Malahat and to Butchart's Gardens for tea in the afternoon. A bridge party was held in the evening. An exhibition of charts, diagrams, mounted organs, photographs and X-rays has been set up in the lower lounge of the hotel.

Leaders of discussion for the last two days included: T. Leon Howard of Denver; Miley B. Vesson of San Francisco; Thomas E. Gibson of San Francisco; J. Dellinger Barney of Boston; H. W. Sulkowitch of Boston; Gordon E. Jones of Boston; Alexander H. Peacock of Seattle; Francis A. Goetz of Salt Lake City; Carl F. Rusch of Hollywood; Samuel K. Bacon of Hollywood; Archibald W. Hunter of Vancouver; Albert E. MacKay of Portland; Alexander B. Hepler of Seattle; Albert Belt of Los Angeles; Dudley P. Fagerstrom of San Jose; John G. Cheatham of Portland; Herbert A. Rosenkrantz of Los Angeles; Harry P. Lee of Spokane; Thomas I. Buckley of Oakland; Franklin P. Johnson of Portland; Irving Willis of Santa Barbara; O. A. Nelson of Seattle; William E. Stevens of San Francisco; John R. Hand of Portland; Russell T. Scott of Lewiston, Idaho; Arno G. Folte of San Francisco; Adolph A. Kutzman of Los Angeles; Albert M. Meads of Oakland; James E. Potter of Bremerton; W. Raymond Jones of Seattle; Edward W. Beach of Sacramento; Charles P. Matthe of San Francisco; and Roger W. Barnes of Los Angeles.

New Firemen Meet Council

Appointment of five new members of the fire department, on the recommendation of Chief J. Law, was authorized by the council. The five men, introduced to the council, were G. Askey, R. Wootton, J. Bailey, B. Southwell and W. Mycock.

Payment of $14.50 was authorized to A. R. Spencer for the loss of 29 chickens killed by marauding dogs.

Gordon H. Campbell of the municipal staff, was granted leave of absence for service with the R.C.A.F.

An increase of $27,016 in tax collections for the seven-month period, ended July 30, was reported by Wilfred A. Greene. The increase was due largely to prepayments and increases in collection of delinquents and arrears. Total amount collected to date was $83,445, as compared with $56,429 for the same period last year.

Saanich Water Need Urgent

The emergent need for an adequate water supply in Saanich was clearly demonstrated to the Saanich Council last night as preliminary readings were given by a by-law restricting use of water for irrigation purposes in all sections of the municipality.

The by-law will permit use of water for domestic purposes only from 7.30 to 8.30 a.m., 11.30 a.m. to 2 p.m., and 4.30 to 6.30 p.m. Penalties with a minimum of a $25 fine are provided.

The seriousness of the situation pertains particularly to the Ten-Mile Point area, where there has been little or no water during the recent dry spell and a dire fire hazard exists. This district at present is witnessing considerable building activity and Councillor J. R. Scooby, Ward Three, pointed out that many of these new homeowners were going to find water shortage an acute problem.

In addition, Fire Chief J. Law told the council last night adequate fire protection was non-existent under present circumstances, under which there are 87 connections on a two-inch main. Installation of fire hydrants in the district to which the fire department's pumper could be connected to draw from the sea was suggested by H. H. Allen, engineer.

This suggestion and the whole problem in the Ten-Mile Point area will be reviewed by a committee of Mr. Allen, Chief Law and Councillors E. C. Warren and Scooby.

In the meantime the by-law will become effective to try and remedy the situation. Residents on Ten-Mile Point and in an area extending northwest to Telegraph Bay are not affected by the restrictions.

The restricted area will be shown all property owners by photostatic copies of maps which will be mailed with their water notices.

The entire problem of lack of water is due largely to loss of pressure and quantity. Mr. Allen explained. Many of the higher-level districts are fed by small mains and even if these were replaced there is no guarantee of sufficient quantity in times of maximum use.

On this basis the whole problem evolves down to having an adequate supply, which Saanich is seeking in well-drilling operations near Cordova Bay.

B.C. House Offers Aid on Casualties

Another service for British Columbia troops serving overseas is being provided by British Columbia House in London.

Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, has been advised that W. A. McAdam, acting agent-general, who is on the advisory committee of the Canadian Red Cross, acts as chairman of the committee for information and records. In this capacity he receives details of casualties and prisoners of war.

Mr. McAdam has suggested to Mr. Hart that if any relatives of the boys overseas wish him to perform any service in connection with those who are wounded or missing he will feel it a privilege to carry out their wishes.

Urges Tax Relief For Farm Lands

Resolutions aimed at relieving farm lands of what was considered unreasonable tax burdens were approved by the Saanich Council last night for presentation to the Union of British Columbia Municipalities.

The resolutions, introduced by Reeve A. G. Lambbrick, met opposition from representatives of the inner wards, Councillors E. C. Warren and Leslie H. Passmore, who voted against both resolutions.

The first resolution proposed that all district municipalities should be restricted to a rate of 25 mills on land until such time as 50 per cent of improvements in the municipality are taxable.

The second advocated the exemption from taxation of all farm buildings, other than those used for human habitation, to the extent of $1,500 assessed value.

In advocating passage of the first resolution the Reeve pointed out that land was bearing an inequitable burden under the present system of taxation, and he felt it only right that farm owners should be given some measure of protection in being guaranteed that they should not be too heavily taxed.

Councillor Passmore challenged the Reeve on his stand on this matter, stating that a resolution was not the wish of a majority representation of the Saanich ratepayers.

On the second resolution, the Reeve pointed out the exemption of outbuildings on farms was in line with the provincial government's policy in unorganized territory. Buildings not used for residence in such instances were exempted to the value of $1,500, he said.

The Reeve pointed out the farmer's outbuildings were to him what the average man's tool shed was and therefore he felt they should not be subject to taxation as improvements, as was now the case.

A further resolution for presentation to the union was introduced by Councillor L. C. Hagan, Ward Six, and passed by the council. It favored abolition of the present statutory prohibition which precludes a man seeking further assessment reduction from a law court after being granted a 10 per cent reduction by the court of revision. This resolution received unanimous endorsement.

25 Years Ago

LONDON — The Leyland liner Iberian, of 5,233 tons, has been sunk by a German submarine. Five members of the crew were killed, two died aboard a rescue boat, and 61 were landed safely.

LONDON — Determination to prosecute the war until Germany's military power finally has been crushed was expressed in a statement here today by Sir Edward Grey, British Foreign Minister.

Victoria will soon be deprived of one of its best local sportsmen in the person of George W. Nicholson, secretary of the Camosun Club, who has accepted a commission in the 67th Western Scottish, and who will soon leave for the front.

It has been decided by the Oak Bay municipality school trustees to inaugurate a high school in the municipality. A beginning is to be made when the next school term begins on August 30.

MARKET FIRM

The weather is hot in California and as a result the orange and lemon market is very firm. Prices are up in the growing areas and an advance in prices is expected here shortly.

Cantaloupe prices are near the lowest they will be this season. Wholesalers state that the large fruit are of the best quality. Shipments from the Okanagan are coming in steadily. The first preserving peaches, the Rochester variety, are arriving. It will be some time before the Alberta peaches are ready.

Ashecroft potatoes are now selling at all retail stores. Regular shipments will be made from now on.

Local cherries are finished. This has been the best season on record for table cherries.

Mrs. MacDougall and her daughter, Jacqueline, left yesterday afternoon for the mainland to fly to Fort St. John, from where B.C. Police headquarters here, advised of the tragedy in the upper country, said a discharged shotgun was found by the remains of Mr. MacDougall.

HERO OF CALAIS — Brigadier Claude Nicholson won the praise of military men for obeying his order to "hold Calais to the end." Now a prisoner of war, he held off two German divisions with 4,000 British and French troops for four days while the main body of British escaped at Dunkerque.

Summer School

Soprano Shows Fine Technique

Rona Valdez, Scottish-born but now of New York, an artist in her own right and wife of the young English composer, Kenneth Walton, yesterday demonstrated to students of Victoria's Summer School an unusually highly-developed soprano technique in a program which ranged from early English and early American to recent songs of her husband's composition.

Perhaps her presentation of the aria "One Fine Day" from Puccini's "Madama Butterfly" displayed to best advantage the freshness of tone, controlled volume and the flexibility of her voice, although other numbers skillfully chosen added definitely to the attractiveness of the program.

The 17th century selection, "Have You Seen But a Whyte Lillie Grow," and the early American "Enraptured I Gaze," written in 1785 by Francis Hopkinson for George Washington and notable for the fact it was the first song published in that country, opened her program. Haydn's "My Mother Bids Me Bind My Hair" and Spohr's "Rose-Softly Blooming" completed the group.

Three French selections, Chabrier's "L'Heureuse," Cui's "La Statue de Czarsko-Selo" and Coquard's "Hail Lull," illustrated the artist's facility in that tongue.

As her third group she presented Henschel's "Morning Hymn," John Mundy's "The Secret" and Roger Quilter's "Love's Philosophy."

Introducing the compositions of her husband in her final group she sang "A Greeting" and "Mary," before Jessie More Wise's "Prayer for a Little Home" and Walter Branssen's "Music of the Spring."

As an encore she sang "Bird Song at Eventide." Grace Timp provided sympathetic accompaniments.

Philco Dealers See Demonstration

The first demonstration on Vancouver Island of what is said to be the most revolutionary change in record reproduction since Edison invented the talking machine 63 years ago, was given to 40 Philco dealers by S. L. Capell, vice-president and managing director of Philco Products Limited, Toronto, in the course of a dinner meeting at the Empress Hotel last night, when the 1941 line of Philco radios and radio phonographs made its official debut here.

Philco's latest achievements, which include a photoelectric phonograph that reproduces sound on a beam of light and a new "perfect radio circuit" using an extraordinary "double X" tube, which reduces local radio station interference by 20 to 1 and strengthens short wave by 5 to 1, were demonstrated by Mr. Capell.

Included in the 1941 Philco which dealers saw for the first time, were 22 newly-designed Philco Radio models in newly-created cabinets. Each had a new radio circuit, which, according to engineers, is the nearest thing to the "ideal circuit" yet achieved in home radio apparatus. One interesting model shown was the strap-around portable radio. This can be carried from a shoulder strap like a camera or a pair of field glasses.

In addition to Mr. Capell, other speakers at the dinner were R. B. Wilson, western sales representative of Philco Products Limited; C. O. Baldwin, manager of the company; J. C. Hail, manager of the radio and electrical department of Mackenzie, White and Dunsin, Vancouver, and Vic Mawer, Victoria manager of

Wilkie Cheered By Doctors Here

James C. Nexley of Glendale, California, was elected president of the western section, American Urological Association, at the 18th annual convention of the organization in the Empress Hotel yesterday.

Chosen president-elect was A. M. Meads of Oakland, California. The secretary-treasurer, Dudley P. Fagerstrom of San Jose, California, was re-elected to the office.

Alexander B. Hepler of Seattle was named a member of the executive committee for three years and Franklin P. Johnson of Portland was elected a member of the editorial committee for five years. Adolph A. Kutzman of Los Angeles was re-elected to the executive for two years, his term to commence in 1941.

Last night the annual formal dinner and dance was held in the ballroom of the hotel. The president, William L. Ross of Yakima, was in the chair at the dinner. No speeches were made but several toasts were proposed.

ROOSEVELT UNPOPULAR

The unpopularity of President Franklin D. Roosevelt with the medical profession was demonstrated when a toast was proposed to the head of the United States. Only a few of the 123 doctors and their wives present responded to the toast, and from the audience came a toast to the President's seat, Wendell Wilkie, which was responded to amid cheers and applause.

"As far as the President's foreign policy is concerned, we are heartily in favor," one delegate remarked after the dinner. "But his attitude towards the medical profession has made him unpopular with the doctors throughout the country."

Island's History Not Enough Known

Victoria was losing a great deal commercially "because we do not make known the colorful and romantic stories of Vancouver Island's past," B. A. McKelvie told Kiwanians yesterday.

If the inspirational tales of the island's history were dangled before the tourist eyes it would make a tour of the island far more enticing and prove a great cash value, the speaker said. Old landmarks, he added, should be preserved, not torn down. Victoria's Wharf Street, Mr. McKelvie said, was not a romantic place now because it had been forgotten, but it would cease to be an eye-sore if each building — every one of which had a wonderful history — had a plate on it telling of its past. Such a scheme would give the city's main street of yesterday a new charm.

PARKING STUDIED IN COAST CITIES

Proposals will be submitted to the City Council in the near future on matters concerning traffic control, parking and garbage disposal by Alderman W. L. Morgan, recently back from a holiday which took him as far south as Mexico.

Remarking that parking meters were apparently on the way out in important Pacific coast centres, the alderman stated angle parking was allowed generally up and down the coast in the more important centres. At Los Angeles, he said, the parking question was handled in a manner considered best for both motorists and merchants.

He studied garbage disposal methods during his trip, noting the manner in which Los Angeles saved discarded cans for commercial use, disposed of certain vegetable waste to pig farms and used glass and chinders to fill in ravines and in land reclamation schemes.

Many Plans Sell Savings Stamps

Reports of the response of British Columbia cities to the war savings campaign are coming in to the B.C. War Savings Committee headed by Chris Spencer.

Penticton, which led all Canada with a per capita return of $5 per year for theatre night, has taken $25,000 in certificates and stamps.

The retail merchants' committee of the Board of Trade has adopted a "stamps for change" plan. Each merchant has a supply of stamps available so that shoppers may take their change in war savings stamps if desired.

Salmon Arm has adopted a similar scheme and stamps can be bought in every store in town. In addition war savings stamps and certificates will be given as prizes at flower shows and at the fair. It is estimated that Salmon Arm has already contributed $7,000.

Granbrook has evolved a War Savings Club with a membership of nearly 400 members, which donates a prize of a war savings certificate to one of its members each month. Members contribute 25 cents each monthly.

Port Alberni has subscribed more than $16,000 in the war savings campaign. Children of the city and district have bought more than $300 worth of stamps.

In West Summerland the Board of Trade has purchased war savings certificates totalling $300. It reports 100 school children buying stamps regularly.

The house-to-house canvass in Trail produced pledges under the employer-employee plan to bring the city's total to more than $100,000 a year.

Vernon has gone over the top with a total of more than $25,000 already subscribed, after a house-to-house canvass.

In a little more than a month residents of Williams Lake, with a population of 600, contributed $5,518.

Kamloops has a campaign under way in which a large number of organizations are participating.

In Rossland headquarters were established in an empty store downtown.

Radio stations in all the larger British Columbia cities are giving support to the campaign, broadcasting announcements and assisting local committees.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should get the amount of fluid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food does not digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sick and the world looks punk. A mere bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of calmed, but have no calmed or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else.

Spend $30,000,000 To Remove Copper

MORENCI, Ariz. (AP)—With a $30,000,000 expenditure, Phelps Dodge Corporation is removing a veritable mountain of copper ore from the greatest reserves of the red metal in the United States.

Already the cap of the mountain, 20,000,000 tons of rock and earth has been stripped away to uncover the 300,000,000-ton ore body. And this is only the beginning.

Actual production from the huge open-pit mine on the edge of this town is not scheduled until December 1, 1941.

A picture of the development's preproduction magnitude is given by Phelps Dodge's estimate of the cost of preparing to recover the ore. Advance stripping $3,360,500, pit equipment $5,930,000, mill and water supply $9,450,000, smelter and power plant $7,100,000, miscellaneous $919,000; total $28,760,000.

T.C.A. Changes

Trans-Canada Airlines, commencing tomorrow, will furnish additional service from the coast to Ottawa and Montreal when Trip 2, leaving Vancouver, 8:15 a.m., will operate through to those cities.

The morning flight formerly terminated at Toronto and will now share the passenger load to points further east with the overnight trip leaving here at 6 p.m. It will arrive Ottawa at 1:05 a.m. and Montreal 2:10 a.m. (11:10 P.S.T.), according to Wallace G. Courtenay, local city traffic agent.

Passenger service on the new route from Toronto to London and Windsor will be inaugurated simultaneously with two flights daily. This provides another link in the airline network and gives Canada connections with American Airlines at Detroit.

Minor alterations in the Vancouver-Seattle service change the early morning departure for Seattle to 7:25 a.m. and the late night departure from Seattle to 9 p.m., arriving Vancouver 9:55 p.m. Slight reductions are being made in round trip fares to Toronto and Ottawa.

TORONTO TO CLOSE

TORONTO (CP)—The Toronto Stock Exchange will extend the Toronto civic holiday on Monday, August 5, by closing Saturday, August 3, also. There will be no trading after the close on Friday, August 2, till Tuesday, August 6.

TOWN TOPICS

A special practice of Centennial United Church choir will be held tomorrow night at 8.

Four motorists paid fines of $2.50 each in the City Police Court this morning for parking infractions.

Bank clearings in the city for July this year were slightly higher than those in the same month of 1939. This month's clearings were $7,974,012 and last year they were $7,887,627.

The first drill practice of the newly-formed Home Defence Corps, Bessie district, was held in Hampton Park, with Sgt. Maj. Travis in command. All interested are requested to attend the next drill, on Tuesday at 7.30.

Construction of a new auditorium at Tranquille Sanatorium is planned by the provincial government. Tenders for the work have been called by the Public Works Department, returnable August 21. It is expected the job will cost around $20,000.

Mayor Andrew McGavin today appointed Alderman T. W. Hawkins, W. L. Morgan, W. H. Davies and B. J. Gadsden to a special city committee to co-operate with federal authorities in carrying out the national registration scheduled to get under way shortly.

The Pacific Jewelry and Loan Company was fined $25 in the City Police Court this morning when a plea of guilty was entered to a charge of selling a diamond set in a gold ring without a trade mark. K. A. McLeod appeared for the company. The charge was laid under the Precious Metals Act and M. B. Jackson, K.C., appeared for the prosecution.

The intermunicipal committee, sitting yesterday under Alderman B. J. Gadsden, decided to recommend to the City Council an approach to the provincial government for amendment of the Municipal Act in regard to clauses governing light weight, short measure and the size of a unit of sawdust. In addition to seeking council approval of the resolution, the committee will also ask that it be submitted to the Union of British Columbia Municipalities' convention in September.

The annual Decoration Day parade and service under the auspices of the North Saanich branch, Canadian Legion, will be held August 4. The parade will form at Patricia Bay service station, West Saanich Road, and move off at 2:40, proceeding to Holy Trinity Church, Patricia Bay, where the service will commence at 3 and will be conducted by Rev. T. R. Lancaster, padre of the branch, assisted by the local clergy. The band of the Canadian Royal Air Force will be in attendance.

Leonardo da Vinci's inventions included a tank, a multiple machine gun, parachute and airplane 400 years ago.

CHINA UNDISMAYED BY BURMA CLOSURE

Closing of the Burma Road, over which munitions and supplies have been reaching Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek at Chungking, will not immediately affect Chinese resistance against the Japanese, according to Albert J. Quon, Hongkong importer, who with Wu Pu-heng, Harvard student, has just reached Victoria en route to the United States.

Temporary closure of the Burma supply route was recently agreed upon between Great Britain and Japan.

"Chiang Kai-shek has enough munitions stored away to last for two years and the stoppage of supplies over the Burma Road will not weaken his resistance, even though he fails to get another shipment," said Quon.

He said the conviction prevailed in China that the war, after three years of fighting, has reached a stalemate.

"The Chinese people are now marking time for ultimate victory," he said.

LaFLECHE RETURNS

AN EASTERN CANADIAN PORT (CP)—Major Gen. L. R. LaFleche, returning to Canada to take over his new position as joint deputy minister of the war services department, today spoke of Canada's growing importance in the war.

"The British," he said, "will hold their island. We have to work and accumulate vast stores of armaments. That seems to be the general opinion in Great Britain—that we will be the last and deciding factor in this war."

Gen. LaFleche came back after serving as military attaché to the Canadian legation in Paris and as the Canadian liaison officer with the French general staff.

He will act in his new post with Mr. Justice T. C. Davis. He served for several years as deputy minister of National Defence.

Lancastria Explanation

LONDON (CP)—"Alfred Duff Cooper, Minister of Information, told the House of Commons today the news of the sinking of the British transport ship Lancastria was withheld six weeks because it was evident from German radio reports that the Germans were 'totally unaware' of her identity.

The Lancastria was sunk June 17 and news of the sinking was published July 20.

Bomb sinking of the former Cunard liner off Dunkerque left 2,823 persons missing, the largest marine casualty list of the war.

A. V. Alexander, First Lord of the Admiralty, declined to give information about Italian or German submarines captured, sunk or damaged because, he said, such knowledge would be "invaluable to the enemy."

Obituaries

MARCH — Funeral services were held at the Sands Mortuary Chapel this morning for baby Joan Louise March, Capt. the Rev. Alan Gardiner officiated; interment was at Colwood.

WOOLNOUGH — Ernest Woolnough died at the family residence, 106 Croft Street, this morning, aged 58 years. He was born in Berkshire, England, and had been a resident of this city for 16 years. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Ada Florence, at the family residence, also one sister in Winnipeg. Main funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon at 2 at McCull Bros' Funeral Home, Rev. J. Mackie Niven officiating. Interment at Colwood.

CHUE — Funeral services for the late Chue Yow Won, 53, victim of last week's level-crossing accident at Chemainus, when an automobile struck an E. and N. speeder, will be held at 2 tomorrow afternoon at Sands Mortuary. The deceased had resided at 521 Cormorant Street for the last 31 years. A brother, Chue Free, of Skeena, B.C., survives. Interment will be in the Chinese cemetery.

British Sink Tanker With Italian Oil

LONDON (CP)—The Admiralty announced tonight that a British naval force had sunk the 300-ton Greek tanker Hermione, under charter to the Italian government, in the face of a heavy Italian air attack.

The engagement in the Aegean Sea Sunday was declared to have ended without damage or casualties to the British forces.

It had presumably occasioned, said the Admiralty, "highly colored Italian reports of a battle between Italian aircraft and British warships."

The tanker, it was added, was carrying 300 tons of gasoline and 200 tons of lubricating oil for the Italian forces in the Dodecanese Islands, off the Grecian coast.

In the activity in the Mediterranean Monday, the Admiralty announced, two British naval planes shot down one Italian plane and damaged another. One British craft made a forced landing but was not damaged.

ALCANTARA CHASES NAZI SEA RAIDER

LONDON (CP)—The British armed merchant cruiser Alcantara fought a battle with a German raider, a fast converted merchant ship, in the south Atlantic, but was unable to prevent the raider escaping, the Admiralty announced today.

The German ship, mounting four guns on each broadside, turned away immediately after she was hit, using a smoke screen to escape.

The Alcantara, however, chased her until a German shot reduced her speed.

The British casualties were two killed and seven wounded.

"The search for the raider is proceeding," said the communiqué.

The 22,209-ton Royal Mail liner Alcantara was converted into an armed merchant vessel with 10 guns mounted on her decks. She joined the south Atlantic squadron last March.

She is commanded by Capt. J. F. P. Ingham, D.S.O.

TRAINING IN U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States Senate military committee amended the Burke-Wadsworth compulsory military training bill today to require the registration only of men from 21 to 31 years old, instead of those between 18 and 64.

After less than two hours' debate, the House of Representatives passed and sent to the Senate today a bill carrying $4,963,151,997 to start work on a 20 per cent expansion of the navy and provide modern weapons for a 2,000,000-man army.

PREPARED TO MEET ATTACK ON PORTS

LONDON (CP)—Ronald Cross, Minister of Shipping, said in a broadcast today that Britain is prepared to meet emergencies arising from attacks on her ports by German planes.

"Enemy action might at any time make sudden changes in our port arrangements," he said, "and we have made plans to meet such emergencies."

The minister declared the Empire has "the greatest merchant fleet the world has ever seen."

He asserted that "in addition to our own shipbuilding output, Canada is building more than 100 ships of all kinds."

"Thanks to our merchant navy—and above all, the men who serve in it—we shall draw an ever-increasing flow of munitions of war from across the oceans, with which to fight our struggle for freedom to a victorious finish," he said.

"Today we have 160,000 men in our merchant navy, assisted by hundreds of seamen from great seafaring nations such as Norway and Holland."

100 More Children; Sailors Return

AN EASTERN CANADIAN PORT (CP)—Some 100 children, sent by their British parents to friends in Canada and the United States for the duration of the war, lined the rails of a vessel which docked here today with 1,000 passengers from the United Kingdom.

The ship brought many air force men and returning Canadian sailors.

RUM, GIN PRICES GO UP IN B.C.
New liquor prices in British Columbia, with increases due to war conditions and taxes, will cover gins, rum, brandies, French wines and five brands of Scotch whisky, the Liquor Control Board announced today.
The new prices go into effect tomorrow.
Most of the popular brands of Scotch are not affected, said W. F. Kennedy, Liquor Control Board chairman, but five brands will go up 10 and 15 cents on the reputed quarts.
Overproof rum will go up 15 cents on the imperial quart and 5 cents on the reputed quart. Proof rum will increase 25 and 15 cents. The higher increase in proof rum is an adjustment as between the two grades.
Gins will advance 15 and 20 cents a reputed quart, depending on the brand. All French brandies go up about 25 cents a reputed quart. Most of the French wines, including champagne, increase 15 or 20 cents a bottle. These are the last stocks of French wines now available as importation has ceased since the Nazis got control there.

WISMER GOES EAST ON DEFENCE PLAN
Attorney-General Wismer will go east again to press his case for establishment of a special defence guard of volunteers in British Columbia.
The Attorney-General said today he will fly from Vancouver tomorrow morning for the federal capital where Senator J. W. de B. Farris, K.C., G. McGeer, K.C., J. G. Turgeon and other B.C. members are working on the plan.
Senator Farris was on the coast last week-end and discussed the proposals with Mr. Wismer. He has now suggested that Mr. Wismer's presence in Ottawa will further the scheme.
The Attorney-General said he will go into details of the proposed organization with the justice and militia branches.
He also will ask Ottawa to advance the proposed deadline of September 15 for the registration of firearms.
The sooner the registration is taken the better in view of the changes in the international situation, Mr. Wismer said.
The Attorney-General said since the information of his home defence plan has become public he has had scores of offers from men who want to volunteer for this type of duty. One organization with a membership of 200 men offered their services today.
Organized on a precinct basis with men irrevocably block the guard would be something along the lines of the local defence volunteers in England.

Attack on Reich Will End War
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sir Louis Beale, member of the British purchasing commission, told the foreign trade conference here that "the mistake should not be made of assuming the war can be won merely by withholding supplies from Germany."
"Now, even more than six months ago, it is certain that direct attack on Germany will be necessary to bring her defeat."
Nevertheless, Sir Louis said, the blockade is still "our essential weapon, necessary to reduce Germany's striking power."
Poland and France were not beaten by a greater bravery, but by tanks and aircraft, and the present war will be won in the mines and factories of a thousand towns and cities.
He gave an insight into the tremendous purchases of war equipment by Britain in the United States. These purchases, including French contracts taken over by the British, amounted to $1,800,000,000, he said, with 60 per cent going for aircraft.
Looking forward to an early end of the war, Smith warned the United States against com-

Bing Crosby and Gloria Jean in "If I Had My Way," now at the Capitol Theatre.

"IF I HAD MY WAY" CAPITOL COMEDY
Bing Crosby shares honors with his youngest co-star, little Gloria Jean, in a bright new Universal comedy, "If I Had My Way," which opens today at the Capitol Theatre.
Gay tunes are enlivened by duet arrangements for Bing and Gloria that are particularly effective. And with the addition of a clever supporting cast and an excellent screen play, "If I Had My Way" is altogether an appealing film.
The supporting cast is headed by Charles Winninger and El Brendel. Excellent work also is contributed by Claire Dodd, Nana Bryant, Allyn Joslyn, Moroni Olsen, Emory Parnell, Kathryn Adams and Barnett Parker.

No Poll Tax Escape For New Militiamen
Exemptions extended to militiamen under city road and poll tax regulations require such men to have been members of the active militia at least six months, it was disclosed at the City Hall today as question arose over the possible reaction of new defence regulations on collection of the city tax.
It was understood the registration of certain classes of men for military training would have no effect on the levy.
Militiamen are one class exempted from payment of the tax, but they must prove at least a half year's membership before they are entitled to consideration. On that basis no action taken now by men joining militia groups would excuse them from 1940 payments.

JULY WEATHER
July weather was about normal, there being less sunshine and slightly more rain, according to the monthly weather report issued this morning at the Meteorological Observatory on Gonzales Hill.
Mean temperature for the month was 59 degrees—one degree below normal. Maximum temperature was 79 on July 1; minimum, 49 on July 2 and minimum on the grass, 42 on July 5. Rainfall was .85 of an inch, which was .41 of an inch above the average.
Sunshine totaled 287 hours, which was 49 hours below average.
Precipitation from January 1 has been 11.88 inches—1.35 inches below normal.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sir Louis Beale, member of the British purchasing commission, told the foreign trade conference here that "the mistake should not be made of assuming the war can be won merely by withholding supplies from Germany."
"Now, even more than six months ago, it is certain that direct attack on Germany will be necessary to bring her defeat."
Nevertheless, Sir Louis said, the blockade is still "our essential weapon, necessary to reduce Germany's striking power."
Poland and France were not beaten by a greater bravery, but by tanks and aircraft, and the present war will be won in the mines and factories of a thousand towns and cities.

FISHING SMACK CROSSED ATLANTIC—Moored at a wharf in an eastern Canadian port is this sturdy Norwegian herring boat, Kaare 11, which slipped quietly into harbor after a 15-day voyage from Tromsø, Norway. Aboard were 23 members of the Novik family, forced to flee when the Nazis took their native town. Even as the tiny vessel hauled swiftly away from Tromsø harbor, Nazi bombers swooped and fired on the escaping craft.

Black Ball Line Buys 6 Ferries

SEATTLE—Six large diesel-electric ferries, idle in San Francisco Bay since the building of the Oakland Bridge, have been purchased by the Puget Sound Navigation Company, operators of the Black Ball Line.

The ferries, each of 2470 gross tons and more than 265 feet in length, are larger than those brought to Seattle by the firm in 1938, and now plying various runs on the Sound.

Purchase price was reported at $330,000. The Black Ball Line's bid was higher than any other, although the ships were advertised all over the world.

Black Ball officials said they could as yet make no announcement as to where the new ferries would run, but did say "they will take the place of smaller ferries which have become unsuited to the services in which they are now operating."

Officials of the operating department of the ferry company have left for San Francisco to complete arrangements for bringing the boats here. They will be towed to Seattle.

Tender Picked Up Lost Fisherman

Exhausted and hungry, a 79-year-old fisherman was picked up in his fishing craft at the western end of Codfish Passage by a surveyor of the hydrographic survey ship, Wm. J. Stewart.

The old man became lost in a dense fog in Milbank Sound and while searching for his headquarters at St. John's Harbor his engine broke down. When found the aged fisherman had been rowing his heavy 30-foot craft for five days and had become completely lost among the innumerable small islands of the sound.

The surveyor's launch towed him to the Stewart, where one of the ship's mechanics repaired his engine and where he was given food and water. It was ascertained that the man was using an old Admiralty chart with corrections to 1917, a map now both obsolete and inaccurate, which probably accounted for his lack of knowledge of the islands.

TROOPSHIPS WELL GUARDED BY NAVY

LONDON (CP)—It was authoritatively learned today that a ship has been sunk or a single life lost through enemy action in the vast movement of troops to and from various parts of the Empire since the war started. Ships ranging from small vessels to giant liners were used.

Thanks to the Royal Navy's successful patrol of the sea, these have been among British Empire troop movements since the war started.

Canadians to Britain, Iceland, the British West Indies; Newfoundlanders to Britain; Australians and New Zealanders to the Middle East and Africa; South Africans to East Africa; Indians to East Africa; Egyptians to Britain; Gold Coasters and Nigerians to East Africa; Palestinians and Cypriots to Britain.

In addition, air training schools have been moved from Britain to Canada, Australia and South Africa, and British troops have been taken from Bermuda, Jamaica and Iceland to other far-flung parts of the Empire.

Survivors Remember Rescue Yacht

A WEST COAST PORT (CP)—Residents of this port gazed in awe yesterday as the Southern Cross, largest and most palatial pleasure yacht ever to visit here, sailed into harbor for a brief stay.

Seven local people, however, recalled how they had first seen the large white craft of Axel Wenner-Gren, wealthy Swedish industrialist, under different circumstances from a tossing lifeboat in the north Atlantic after abandoning the torpedoed Athenia.

For Miss Dorothy Dean, Mrs. T. J. Dean, Miss Alice Michie, Miss Kay Michie, Mrs. A. Stoddard, Charles Bowen and S. Robinson, of Vancouver, were among those picked up by the Southern Cross as it sped to a distress call from the Athenia.

Today a bouquet of British Columbia flowers graced a table on the yacht, sent to its owner aboard by the local group he picked up from the ocean. Altogether, the Southern Cross saved 369 survivors of the Athenia.

Bomber Burned in Crash at Panama

PANAMA (AP)—A United States army bomber was reported to have crashed and burned shortly before noon today in an isolated area some 40 miles southeast of this city.

The plane, from France Field, Canal Zone, had been towing aerial targets.

Early reports did not give the circumstances of the accident or state the number of the crew. A pilot who flew over the area reported the ship was burning on the ground and three parachutes could be seen nearby. A plane carrying a target usually carries a crew of five.

Foreign Exchange

NEW YORK (CP)—Late foreign exchange rates: Official Canadian Control Board rates U.S. dollars buying 10 per cent premium, selling 11 per cent premium, equivalent discounts Canadian dollars New York buying 9.91 per cent, selling 9.09 per cent.

Canadian dollar New York open market 11 1/2 per cent discount on C.B. rate.

Great Britain official (bankers) foreign exchange committee rates buying $4.02, selling $4.04, open market cables 3.82.

Upward Swing Blocked

NEW YORK (AP)—Irregular price movements among various leaders blocked rising tendencies in the stock market today.

Gains and losses were fairly evenly balanced at the close. Trading was limited to about 550,000 shares.

Allegedly, "received" something of a lift when the House appropriations committee recommended repeal of the profit restriction on army and navy airplanes.

On the minus side were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, Sears Roebuck, Phillips Dodge, Santa Fe, Chesapeake & Ohio and Texas Corp. More resistant were United Aircraft, Eastman, Dupont, Westinghouse, American Telephone, International Paper and Allied Chemical.
